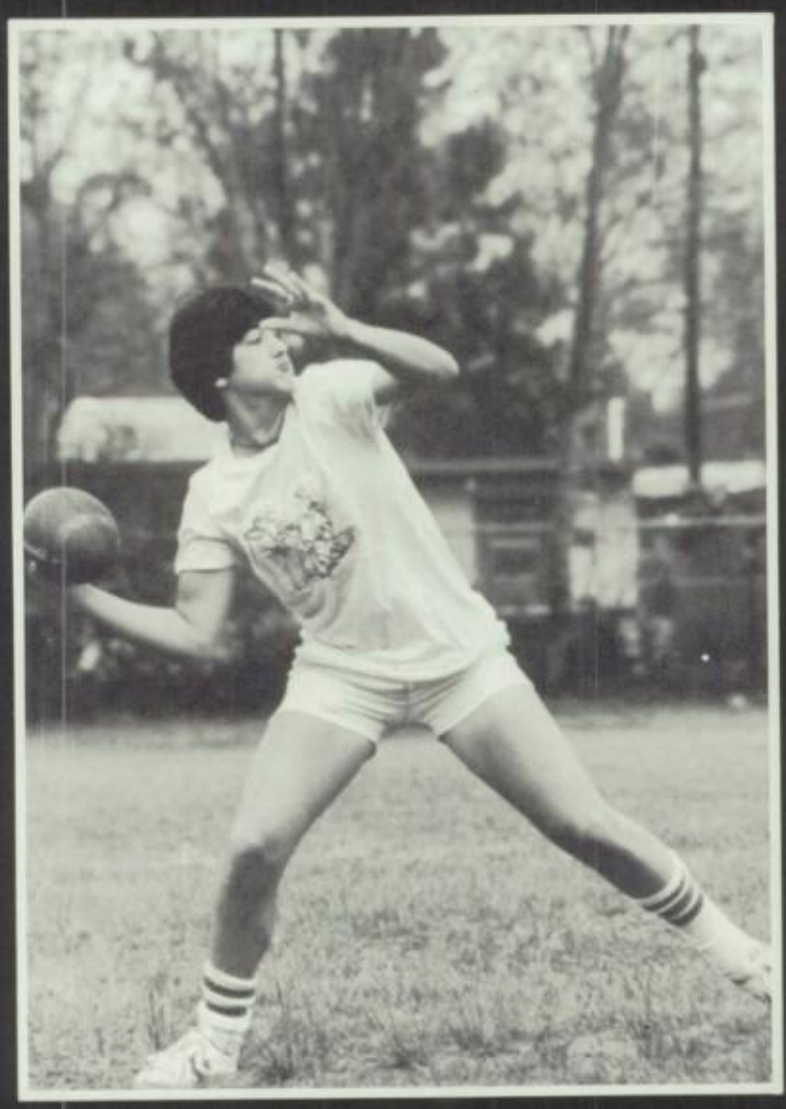
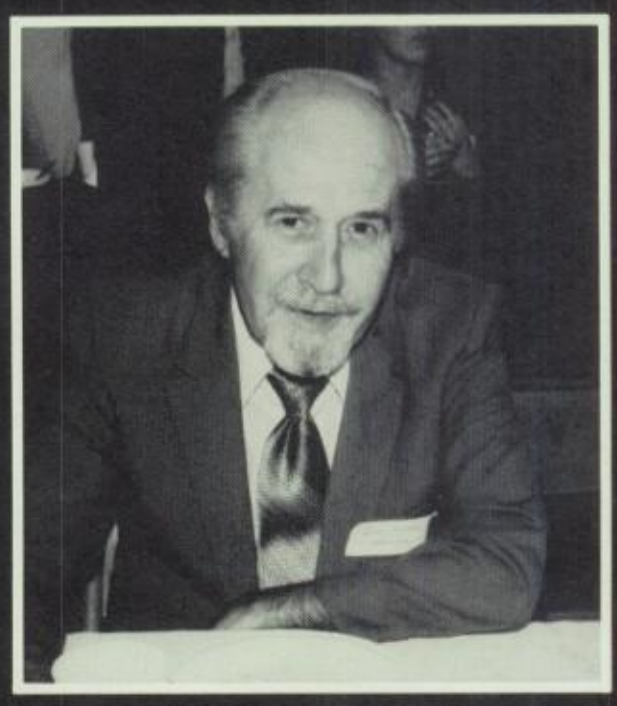
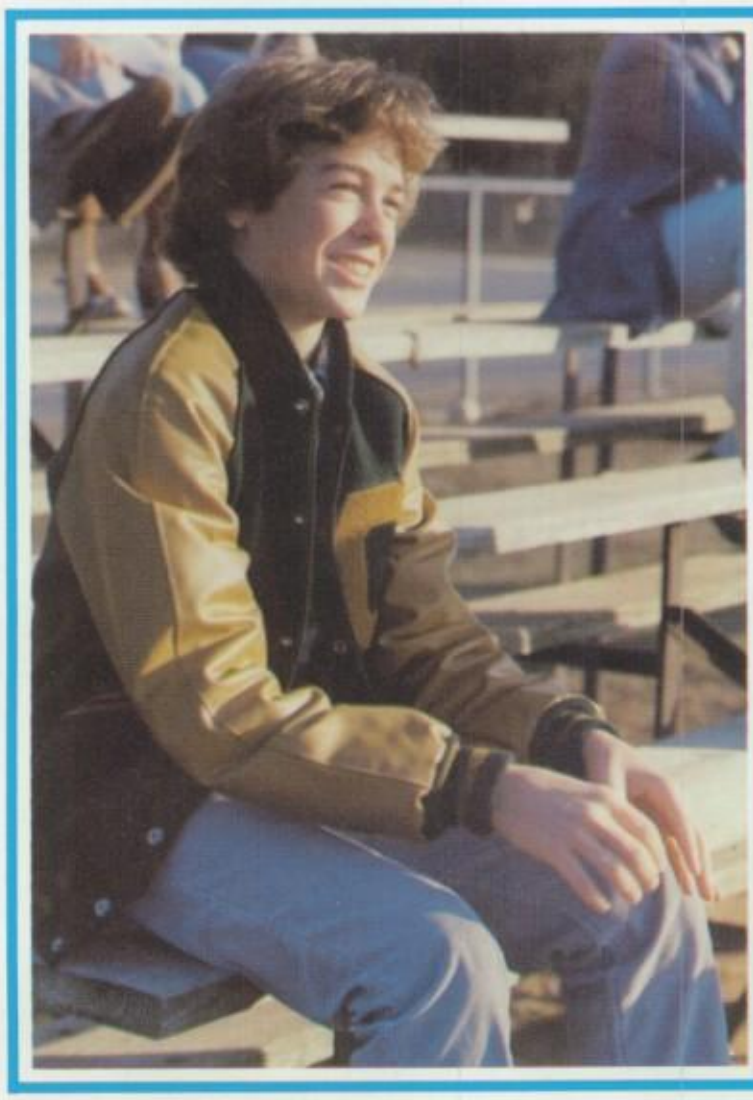
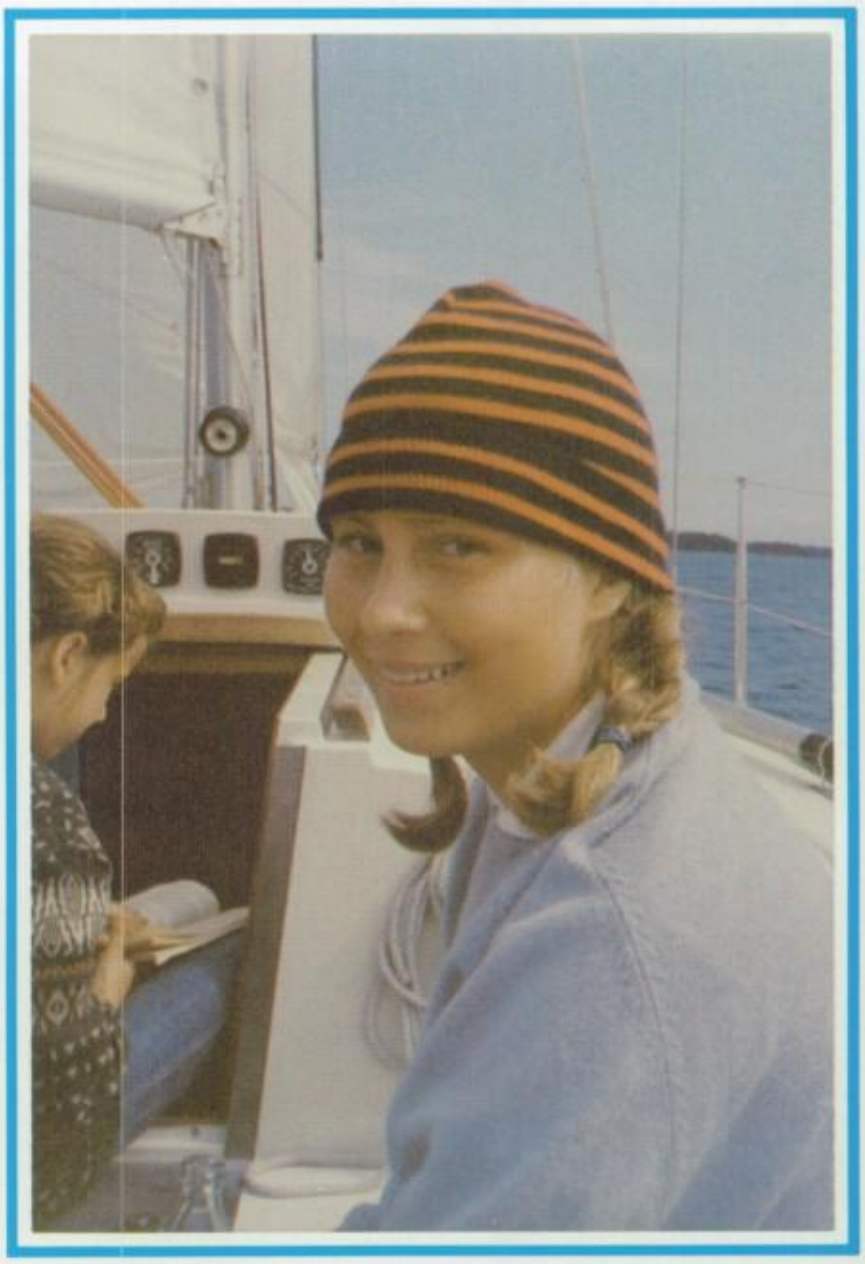
Life is a banquet, rich and varied,
At which we feast . . .

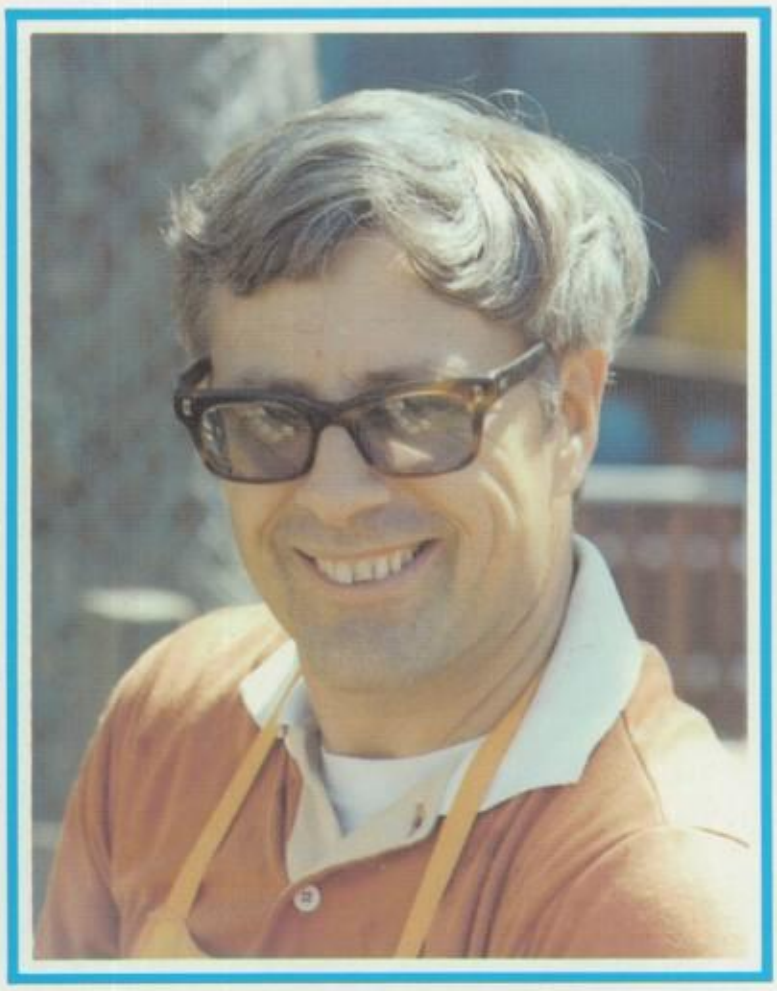
Individually we add spice to the meal,
Making its flavor pungent and memorable . . .



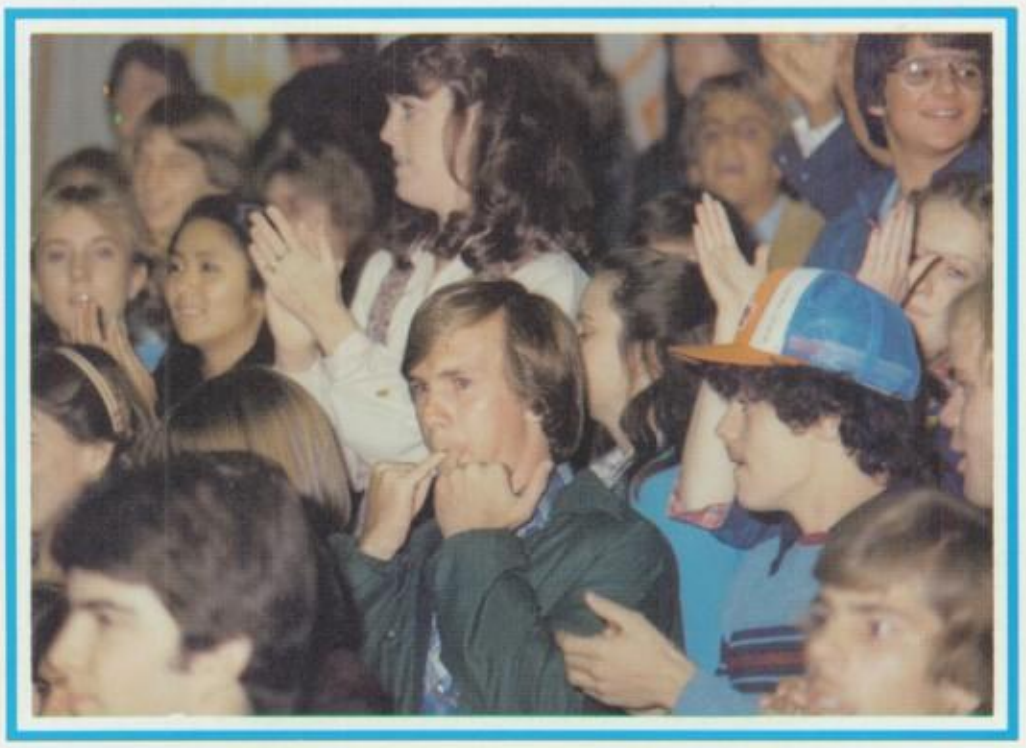




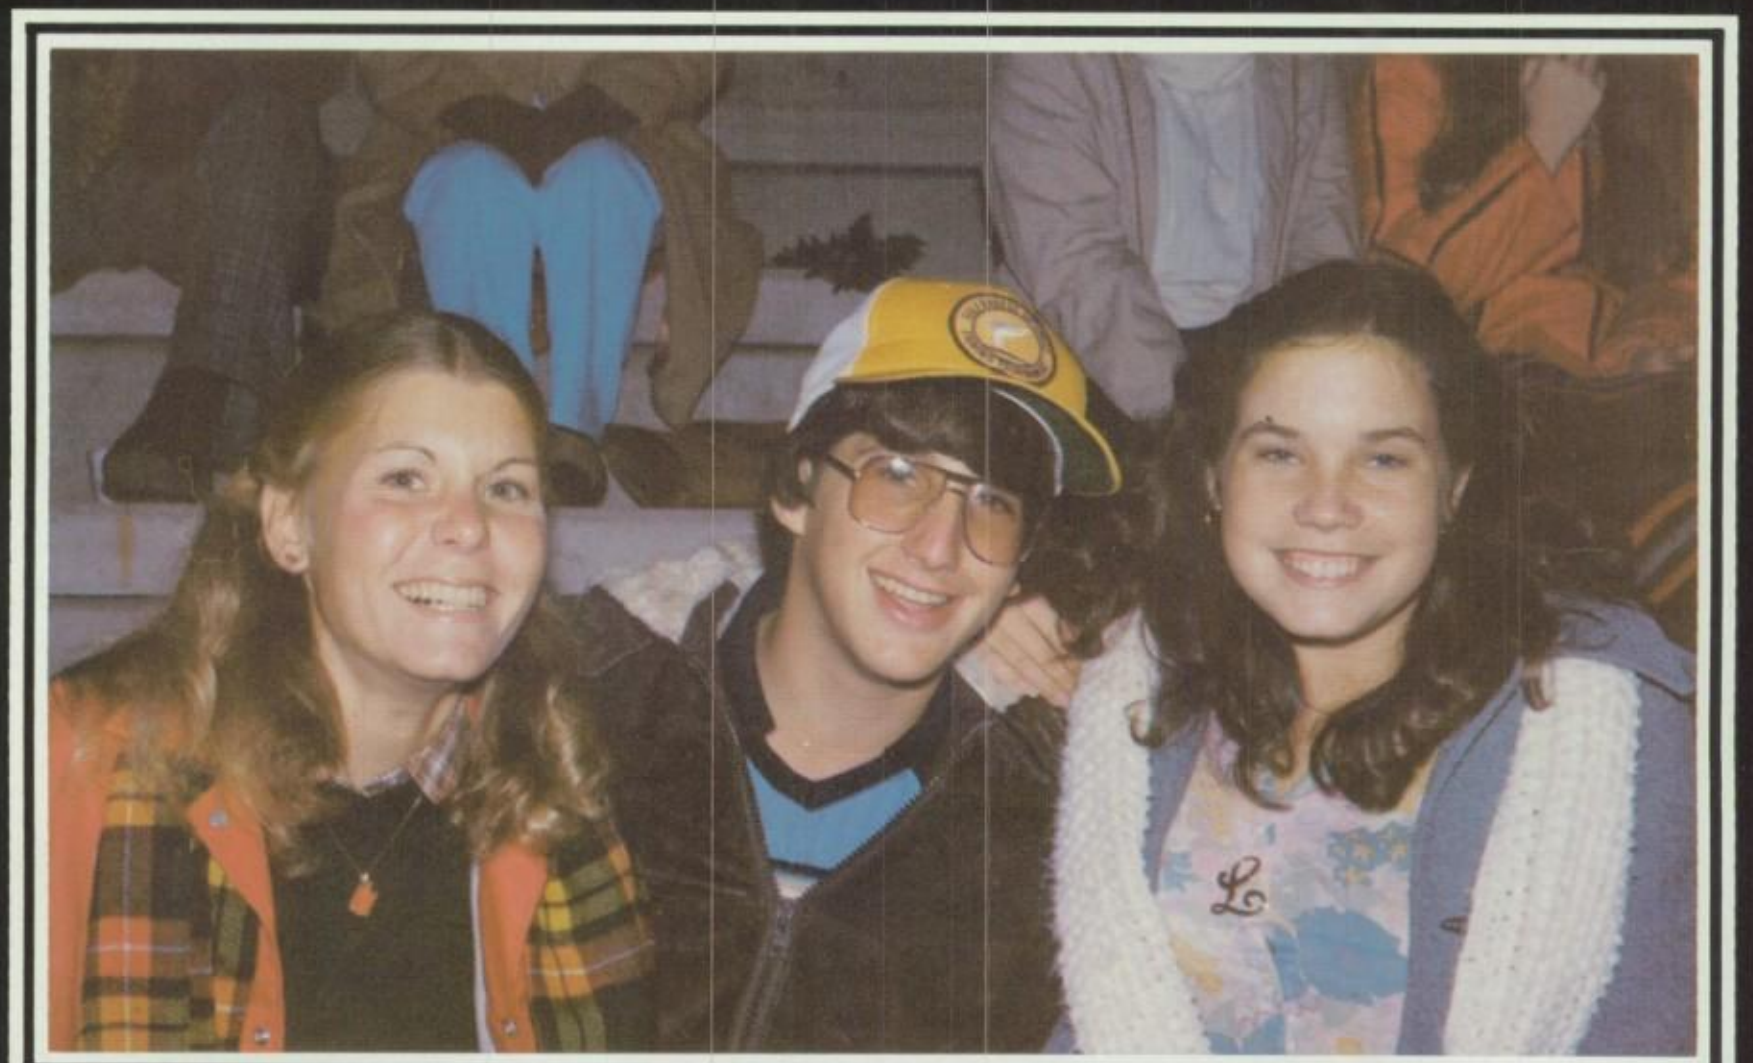


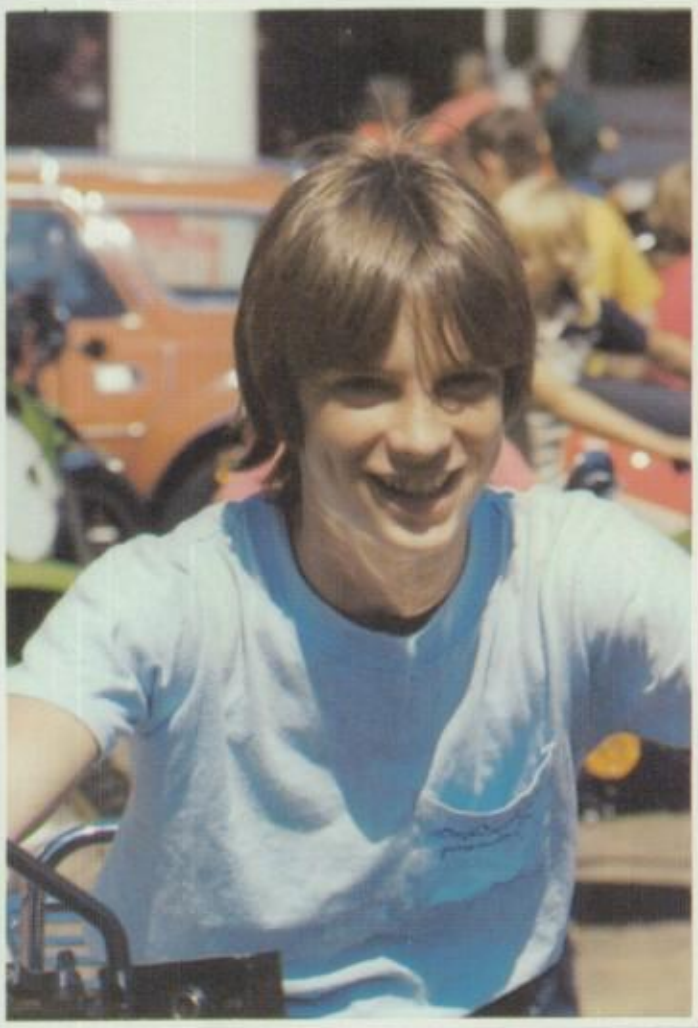


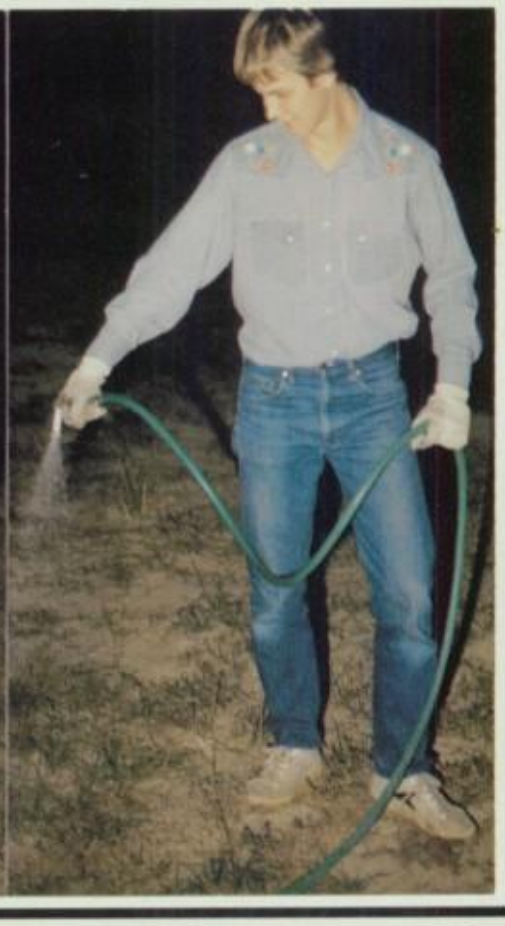
At the table of experience we savor
laughter . . . tears . . . each other . . .



The challenge of learning whets our appetite
For further growth and development . . .







Delight in our dreams
Gives us a taste of Life
beyond life . . .

We swallow the sweet times
With the bitter,
Our digestion aided by the cordial
Of friendship . . .

Filled with spirit, pride and cheer,
We rise from the banquet
Nourished and sustained.

Varsity Looks Fine in '79

Rick Falzone and Coach Fulton discuss the next play of the game.

Frank Warfield surges forward with the ball to score a touchdown.

Jeff Hardin and Al Jackson put the ball through the goal.

Marion Wyer anxiously watches the game.

Al Richards plows through the line.

The 1979 Varsity football team, although hindered by being placed in competition with Class 3A schools, performed admirably and for the first time in four years presented Catholic High School with a winning season. This accomplishment was soon overshadowed, however; by the untimely death of Head Coach Bobby Fulton and his wife in a tragic car accident in early January. For this reason this football section is dedicated to the memory of Coach Fulton.

Cross Country Savors

This year's cross country team had a winning season, led by Coach Bill Hemming. The team started in early August touring Pensacola on foot. Both the girl's and boy's teams won the Escambia County Championship. The girl's team won at districts and the boy's team advanced all the way to state.

Steve Henning and Coach Hemming participated in a marathon in the Mardi Gras. Coach Hemming finished the 26-mile course in 3 hours, 2 minutes while Steve Henning finished in 3 hours, 5 minutes.

Cheerleaders Enrich Spirit of Catholic High

The Junior Varsity puts Crusader pride in action.

So that's why they call Tina Hunter "Stumpie."

Co-Captain Catherine Currie and Captain Denise Balthrop.

Spunky Patrice Scarritt loves to cheer.

Anna Patti shows cheerleading enthusiasm.

"Fight, team, fight! We're #1." No matter the weather conditions, before one fan or thousands, the cheerleaders are there, ready to support the Crusaders. But the work only begins at games. Then there are pep rallies, Spirit Week, King Ugly, parent's night ... anything to boost that good ol' CHS spirit. And behind it all is that wonderful lady, Miss Virginia Holland — and not much further back are the 10 girls in green and gold.

The J.V. Cheerleaders are Janet Remich, Michelle Flynn, Robin Grice, and Tina Hunter.

Senior Cheerleaders Lisa Holmes and Patrice Scarritt.

New Coach Leads Crusaders

The Boys Varsity Basketball Team this year is led by a new coach who is Coach Tim O'Neil. With a new coach the team had a rebuilding year. All the boys were new at being on a varsity basketball team. There were five junior boys and six senior boys who worked hard for the Crusaders.

The games proved to be exciting, especially the win over PHS. Talent was portrayed on the court by the Varsity players of 1980.

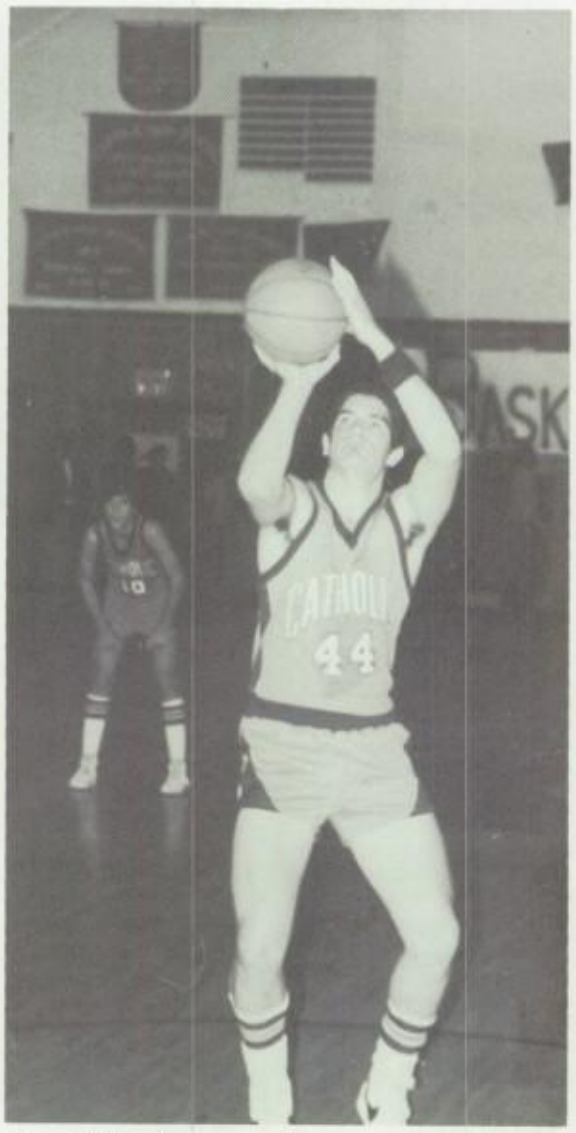
Duke Osborne knows his stuff.



Dan Tully gives moral support to teammate John Oliver . . .

. . . and John does the same for Dan.

Wayne Mattair is overwhelmed by the work of the team.

Rex McKinney looks like he will never give up the basketball.

There is no need to worry about making points with Ricky Wilson on the Court.

We can't lose with Chet Davis on the side of the Catholic Crusaders.

Where would the Crusaders be without the fans?

Tim "Tex" Kane receives the ball from teammate Dan Tully.

Don't worry, Jim Kintz; the team will get the ball back.

Benji Peck waits for the moment when he can help his favorite team.

With the direction of Coach Tim O'Neil, Dan Tully is bound to do a good job.

Girls Return to State

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team, coached by Virginia Holland, went to state for the fifth year in a row. Although practice did not start officially until August, the girls worked since last spring. Holland, in her fifth year as coach, said that she is proud of her team and always plans for a good year. The Crusaders are also proud of the Girls' Varsity team. The girls have worked very hard this year and what they can do on the court proves it.

Shereen Samonds looks for a familiar face.

Kim Jones tries her best for the Crusaders.

Junior Varsity's Drive Nets Success

Since 1941 the Junior Varsity has followed the motto "Always do your best and leave the rest to God." Following the motto this year led the team to victory over Pensacola High School (92-58), Gulf Breeze High School (66-60), and others. Under the leadership of Coach Robert Burke, the team grew in experience and Christian sportsmanship.

"Whoever said dribbling would be easy?" wonders Kirk McKinney.

The bench watches as G. Gooding shows his skills.

Crusaders wait to spring into action as M. Pilkinton's tip off starts the game.

Curtis Forte flies past his opponents and goes in for a magnificent lay-up.

Baby Crusaders Dribble to the Top

David Lyablanovitz is on the move.

The 1979-80 Freshman Basketball team finished with an outstanding 16-6 record, playing with consistency and enthusiasm all year. Coach Michael Browne predicts, "the future of CHS basketball looks very bright with such talented and dedicated athletes."

This season marked the last for Coach Michael Browne. Although Coach Browne, having joined the Air Force, will no longer be on the faculty, the students will always be grateful to him for giving seven years to Catholic High School.

Super Soccer Soars to Successful Season

The soccer team this year at C.H.S., coached by David Cooper and Jack Moser, became a Varsity sport. Captain David Rabold led his team to a winning season. In subdistrict action the Crusaders defeated Pensacola Christian 5-0 and went districts where Gainsville beat them 3-0. Soccer is the world's most popular spectator sport and hopefully it will find a good home at C.H.S. in the future.

Will Sean Moser and Manuel Lopez be there when the ball comes down?

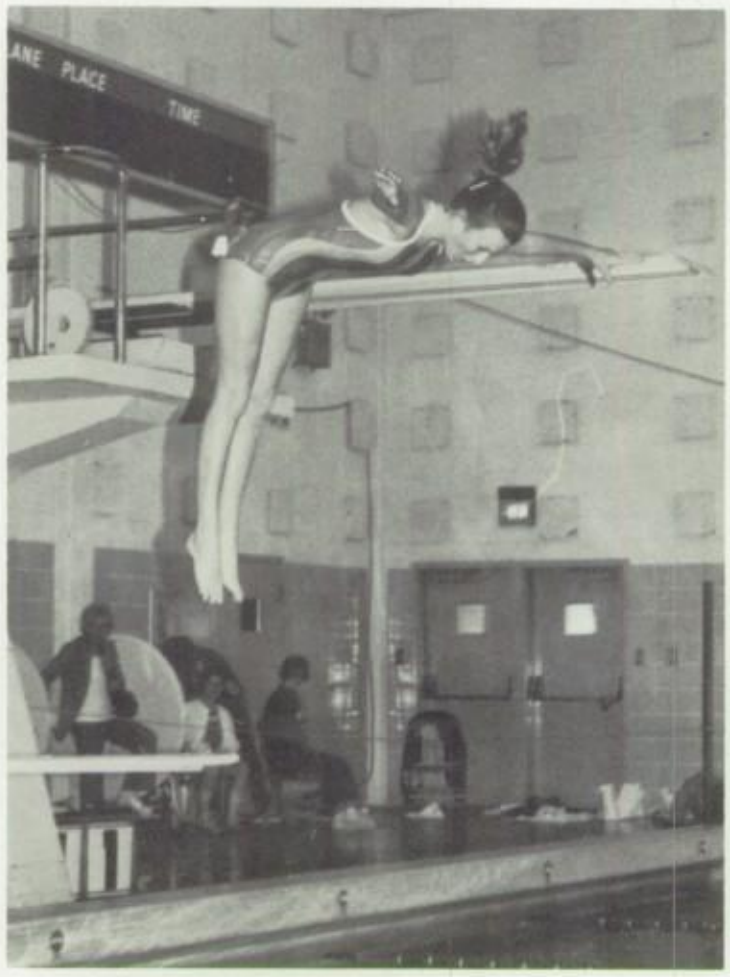
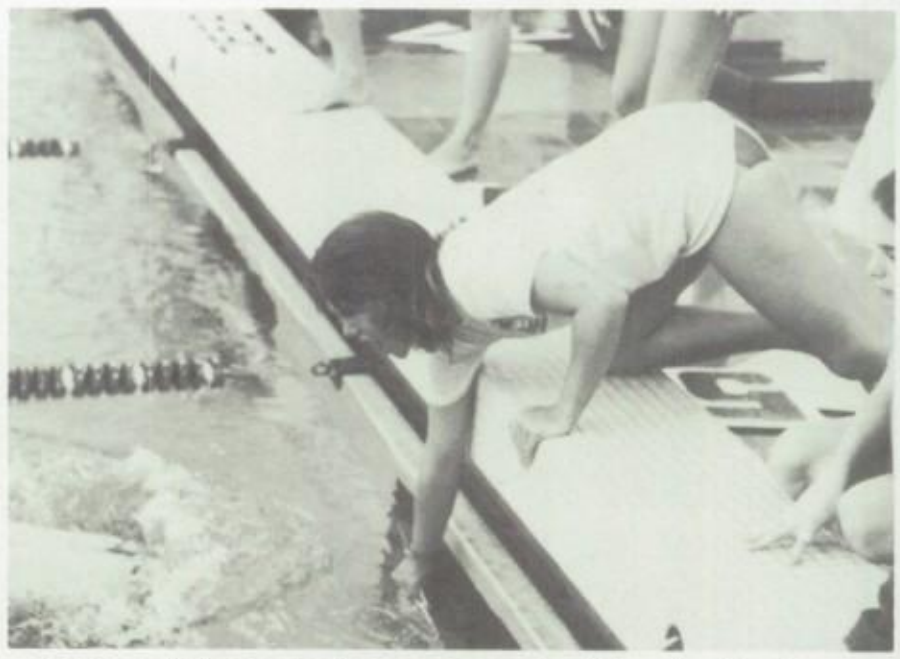
Swim Team Splashes Ahead

The season began with a splash for the Catholic High Swim Team. After months of practicing, the swimmers put talent to a test. The Crusaders, with a limited number of veteran swimmers and a season with only five dual meets, have had a surprisingly good season with boys placing 2 and 3 and girls, 4 and 1. Coaches Vince Farrugi and Chris Bloomer led the team to state after they placed second in districts.



Sally MacDonald reaches the peak of her dive.



Maureen Sullivan shouts encouragement and gives lap directions.

David Galloway begins his fifty-meter sprint.

John Galloway swims to victory.

A poised Laura Wimberly awaits the start signal.

News-Journal Recognizes Skill of Tennis Teams

The girls' tennis team finished the year with a 14-0 record. They won the Pensacola News-Journal Invitational and won districts. The boys' team did almost as well with a 13-1 record and in placing second at districts. They also won the News-Journal Invitational. The most valuable players were seniors Jay Seegers and Nancy Hamel.

Kim Gray practices her swing.

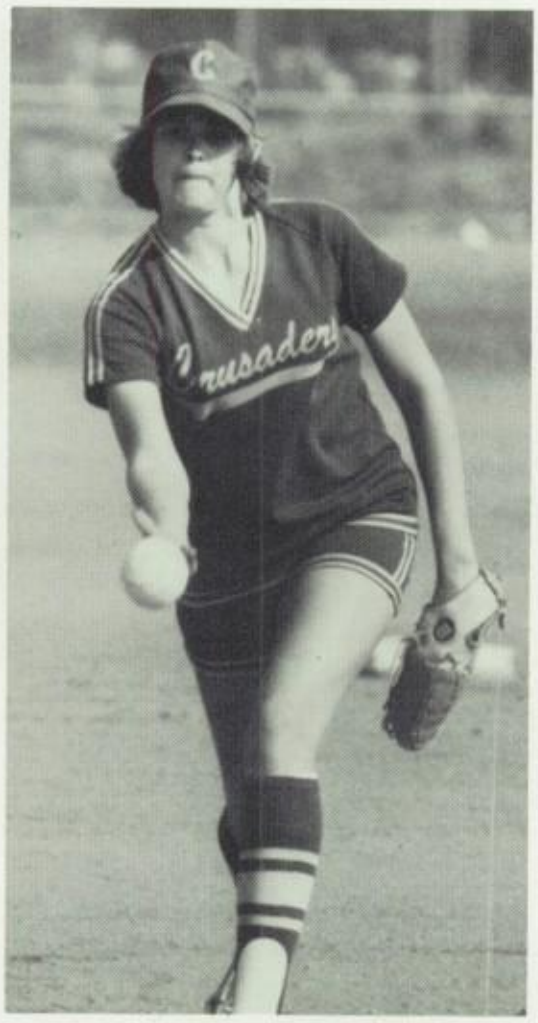
Lencho Ramirez pitches with intensity.

Softball Is Up to Bat

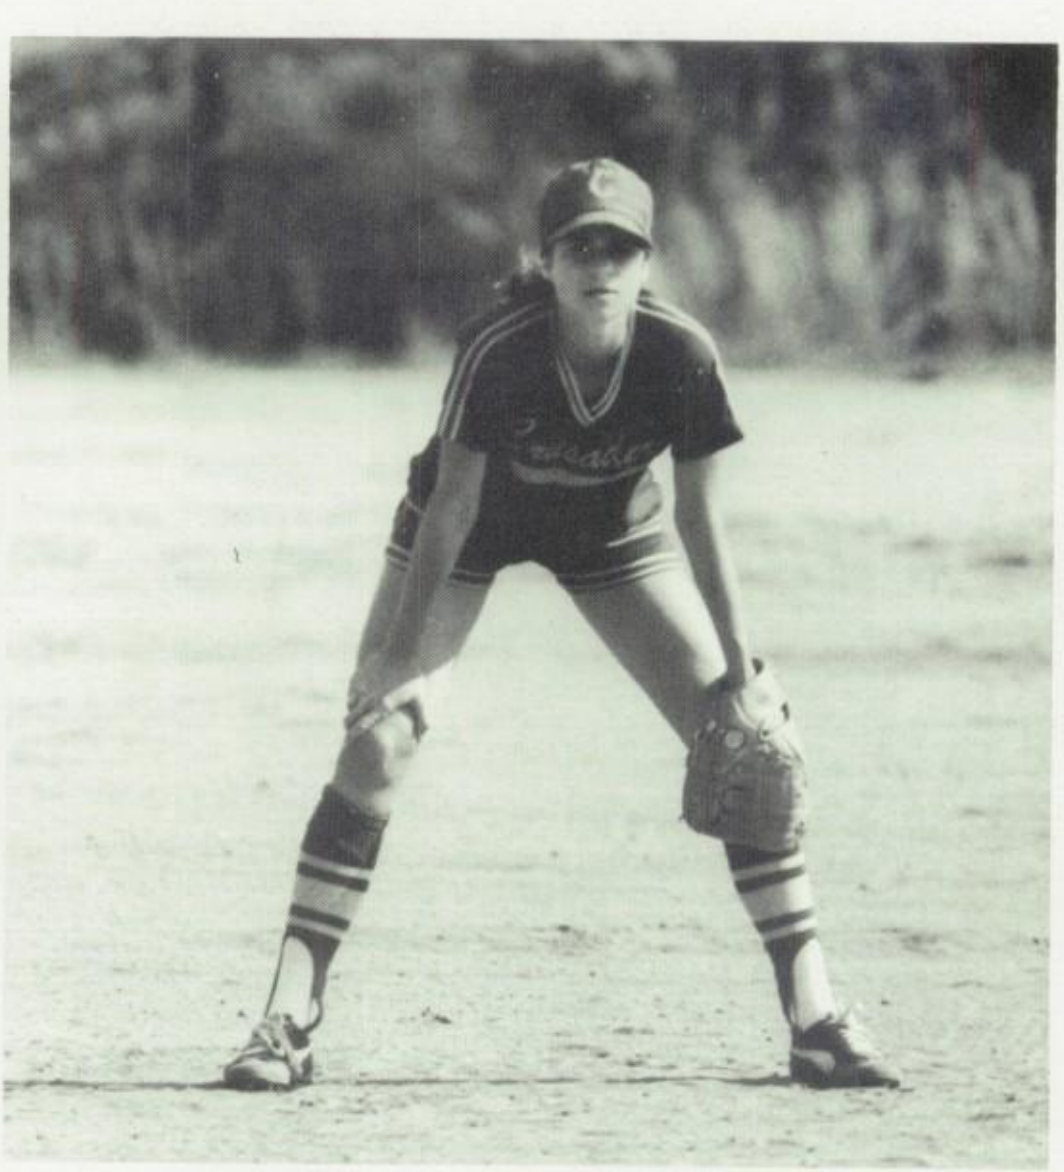
Coach Lucas directs the team.



Whitney Rustand throws a perfect pitch.

The saying "Practice makes perfect" describes the girls' softball team. Coached by Jim Lucas, they practiced every day after school to gain their victories over many area high schools. After their losses, they always bounced back to gain another victory.

Janet Brown demonstrates how practice makes perfect.



Carol Whitney waits for the ball to come her way.

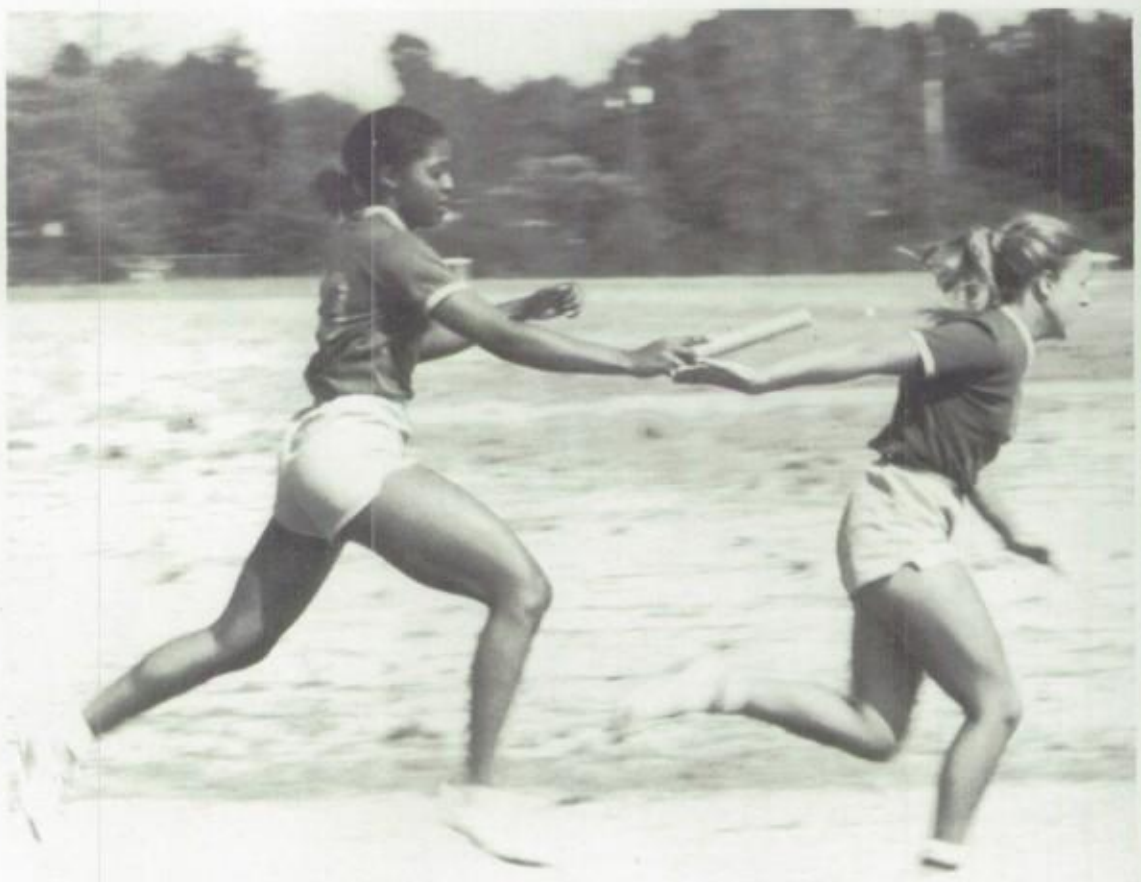
Crusaders Follow Track to State Meet

The Track Team performed quite well this year, much to the credit of Coaches Hemming, Payne, Gedney and Erwin. The girls won the district meet, advancing Lisa Rentz, Kit Woolverton, Angie Clark, Lynda Payne, Lisa Dickerson, Beth Flynn, Sherri Parrish, Gillian Hart and Terry Saltmarsh to the state meet in Winter Park. The boys placed third in districts, with Robert Goley, Dan Tully and Eric Babin qualifying for the state meet.

Paul Johansen, Frank Warfield and Jim Olsen prepare for the 440 relay at districts.

Superstar Dan Tully takes the lead in the district mile.

Gwen Terry flies through the air with the greatest of ease.



Sonya Reed and Robin Grice boost the team's record with their sprint relay exchange.

Sherri Parrish and Debbie MacNamara match stride for stride in the mile run.

All eyes are on Steve Johansen as he gives that last push to clear the bar.

Student Council Peppers School With Activities

The Student Council was responsible for many of the activities around school. They brought to CHS the U.S. Navy Pageant of Flags, the Blood Bank, and the sidewalk circus. They also presented an Open Forum to have questions about the school answered. Because of their influence they were able to provide field days, jean's days, and even a change in the dress code. Student Council sponsored the Monster Mash, sock-hops, St. Patrick's Day Dance, and a talent show. Their service consisted of Christmas baskets, Operation Tin Can, and Have a Heart Day. They helped the school by providing cafeteria clean-up and a clean-up day. At Christmas they were the Secret Santas who gave gifts to the teachers.

Cultural Awarness Builds Confidence

The Cultural Awareness Club, under the direction of Mr. Jim Williams, met frequently to discuss the heritage and history of the Black peoples throughout the world. Speakers were invited to talk to the club about the various aspects of Black culture. Together the club members gained a deeper sense of pride and respect for their Black heritage.

Officers: Rickey McCants, Tam Byrd, Deidre McVoy, Kitt Lough, Paul Sims, and Brian Johnson discuss topics for the next meeting.

Lisa Townsend gives her presentation to the club.

Anchor Club Embarks on Successful Voyage

The Anchor Club has been very active in 1979-1980. They have led their school and community through another great year. The officers this year are: moderator, Ms. Lori Greene; Pres., Dian Gehrdes; Vice-Pres., Kathy Moser; Secretary, Brenda Kane; Treasurer, Amy Sienicki; Historian, Kim Hart; Sr. Rep., Jennifer Briggs, Jr. Rep., Martha Hodgkins, Mary Ann Humphreys; Sgt. at Arms, Theresa Johnson; and Sweethearts, John Pickert, Duke Osborne, Don Topp, John Hoffman, Nathan Silva. In September, they weighed anchor, set sail and embarked on a year full of activities. They sold themselves as slaves on Field Day and sold apples on Apple Annie Day. All through the year they helped out at track meets, and near the closing of the year they held a tea for the teachers and new members. In the past two years that the Anchor Club has been in existence, they have made themselves a vital part of the school and community.

The members are: (left to right): K. Moser, L. Sylte, K. Davis, C. Hinton, A. Collins, T. Remich, F. Rabold, K. Wilkinson, J. Briggs, L. Dickerson, M. Humphreys, T. Saltmarsh, D. Gehrdes, M. Yearbook Staff Works With Charisma

The 1979-80 Charisma Staff worked diligently through the entire nine-month school year to deliver the finished product during the summer. Moderated by Sister Margaret Frederick and guided by the experienced hand of second-year editor Dian Gehrdes, the staff members meet every Monday and Thursday for at least one hour and a half. The Charisma is the captured essence of Catholic High School.

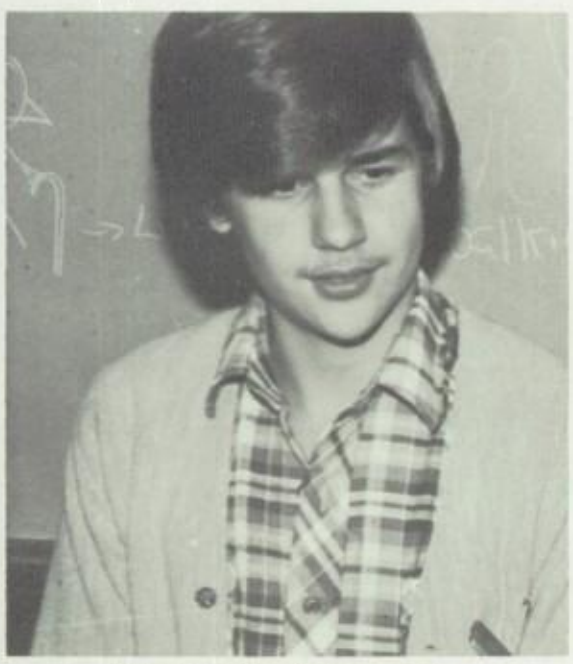
Photographer Paul McCain develops pictures.

Editor Dian Gehrdes carefully chooses the photographs.

Kristin Holm and Mary Beth Kissel decide which pictures to use.

Sister Margaret advises the staff on their decisions.



Philip McCain devises an idea.

Kelly Holm, Vicki Nanni, and Henry Boyd look over their layouts.

Photography Club Adds Class to Clicks

A new club this year at CHS is the Photography Club. Under the teaching and guidance of Monsignor Terrell Solana, the Photography Club members learn the techniques of photographic composition, lighting, and creativity. The club's moderator, Father Guy Morin, enabled the club to set up a photographic dark room with complete developing and printing capabilities. This dark room will be maintained by the Photography Club and will be used by the Staff in the years to come.

Crusader Staff Strives to Inform School Community

Peter Newhouse, Henry Boyd, Fred Dance, Robbin Watts, and Kathy Pilkington prepare to deliver the CRUSADER to the readers.

The purpose of the Crusader is two-fold: to inform readers of the happenings of the school and to provide a vehicle for the students to express their opinions and ideas. Financed primarily by candy sales and the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance, the paper is published five times a year and contains school news, editorials, human interest features, and sports coverage. This year the staff was composed of 11 seniors, 10 juniors and two sophomores.

Typing is a big part of the work as shown by Jim Burns, Becky Farley, Kim Greenwood, and Kim Arthur.

Dan Tully, Susan Kennedy, Diane Weller, Lisa Huggins, and Bryan Newkirk work diligently on copy.

Dian Gehrdes, Frances Rabold, Joe Young, Joe Scarborough, and Amy Sienicki are pleased with the results.

Sister Margaret Frederick and Tawni Toth find one of the newspaper photographs quite amusing.

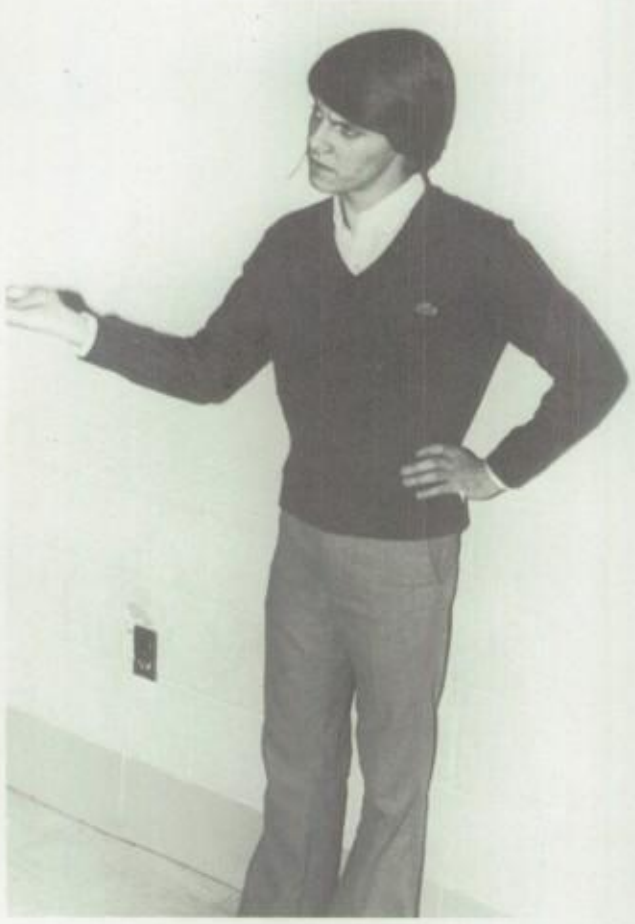
'Fantastic' Best Describes Forensics Team

The members are: (Kneeling): Norman Vickers, Larry Kerr, Hunt Scarritt, Tim Deagan, (Standing): Mrs. Massicotte, Langley Williams, Lisa Ferraro, Denise Balthrop, and Ella Bond.

The purpose of the Forensics Club is to develop speaking and to compete in speech tournaments on a state level. Club officers are John Herring, President; Denise Balthrop and Lisa Ferraro, Senior Leaders. This year seven students qualified for the state tournament. This is the ninth consecutive year that CHS Forensics team has participated in the state tournament.

Lisa Ferraro demonstrates her dynamic speaking ability.

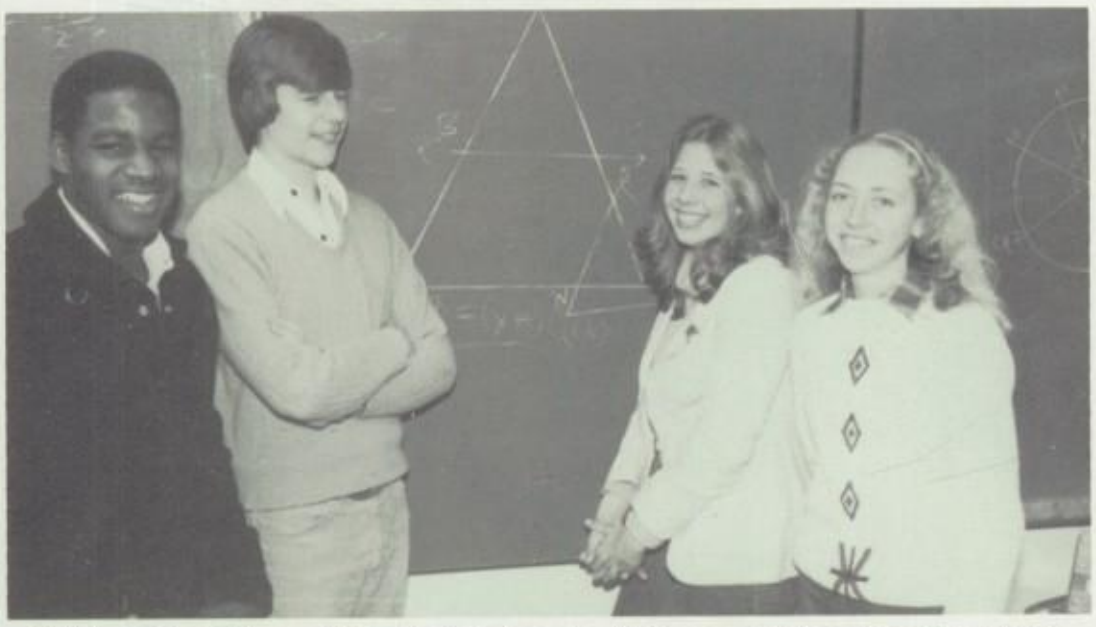
Mrs. Annette Massicotte does a great job moderating the forensics team.



Dramatic interpretation is a challenge for Hunt Scarritt.

"The Fantastics" were really fantastic with Norman Vickers, Denise Balthrop, Langley Williams, John Herring, and Ella Bond.

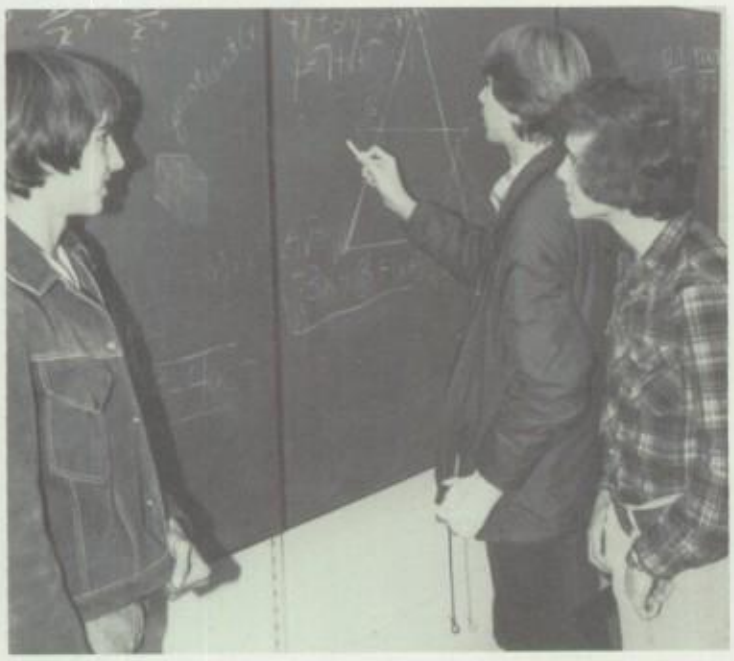
Knowledge Multiplies as Math Club Functions



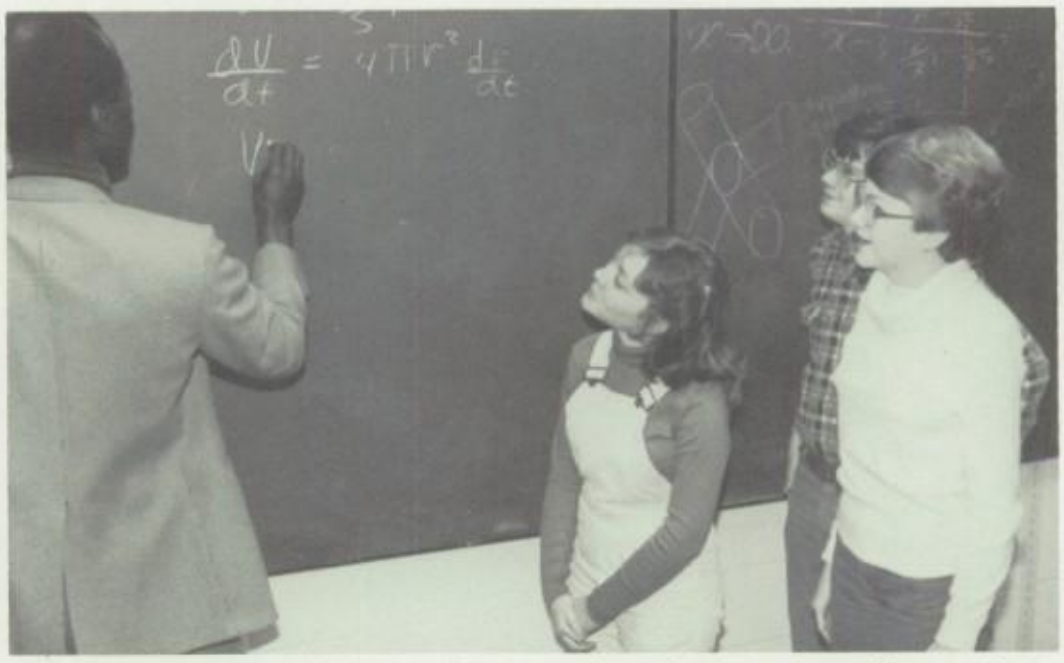
Officers Brian Johnson, Philip McCain, Langley Williams, and Mary Ann Humphreys

The Math Club this year has sixteen members moderated by Mr. Jim Williams. The purpose of the Math Club is to advance in different areas of mathematics and learn more about sciences where math is of great importance. Various people are invited to speak on computer sciences, astronomy, and other disciplines. Also, field trips are taken to P.J.C. and U.W.F. to listen to lectures from the math and science professors.

The officers this year are: Pres. Philip McCain, Vice pres. Langley Williams, Treas. Brian Johnson, and Sec. Mary Ann Humphreys.



Manuel Lopez and Bruce Ledford attempt to resolve the confusion posed by John Millet's answer.



Mr. Williams explains an easier and better method of solving the problem to Karen Davis, Pat Kelton, and Heather Deane.

Nancy Smith and Kim Arthur listen to Kearny Hacker as he demonstrates a new calculus equation.

Lights, Camera — Drama Club Is in Action

The Drama Club, better known as Catholic High School's Scott Street Players, produced "Surprise Package: Love," which included episodes from "Grease," "Medea," "The Glass Menagerie," Peanuts, "Suppertime," and other well known works. Members were very much involved in the liturgies at Mass by acting out scriptures through choral, dance groups, and pantomime. The enthusiastic group this year was led by Lynn Gerber, President; Cam Hinton, Vice President; Melanie Hinton, Secretary; Jennifer Scafidi, Treasurer; and Ms. Kay MacKenzie, moderator.

"Snoopy," Brian Hartig, tells "Charlie Brown," Larry Kerr, it's Suppertime.

Larry Kerr shows disappointment in Karen Davis.

These Drama Club members are tying themselves up in "Grease," which was part of the play, "Surprise Package: Love."

International Club Studies Foreign Cultures

The International Club is a club that travels all over the world, yet stays right at Catholic High. They learned things about different countries, and even had a few guest speakers. The club is moderated by Mrs. Anne Schimmel and Mr. Jim Williams.

Lynn Gerber and Langley Williams study art from many countries.

CHS Has New Racquet

Mary Kissel will get the swing of it sooner or later.

Carol Whitney and Liz Sherouse use their skills to try to beat opponents John Whitney and Beth Sullivan.

As you can tell by these players, raquetball can be a strenous sport so they must try to stay in shape.

All eyes are on Steve Sullivan to make the next point.

Coach Greg Spikes and Coach Jim Lucas head the newest club this year, which is the Racquetball Club. Everyone has a great time with this ever-growing sport. Every Saturday the members meet at the Racquetball Center for more practice. Fun was the main idea of this club, and this is what everyone has.

Sailing Club Takes New Tack

Debbie D'Asaro, Heather Deane, Molly Steadman, and John Whitney concentrate on learning the sailing handbook.

The 1979-80 Sailing Club's goal was to provide students with an opportunity to experience the joy of sailing. The club raised money through their booth at the Spring Rally, cake raffles, and bake sales. Members were required to master the Red Cross Sailing Book before taking a boat out. A Coast Guard speaker provided the club with additional sailing information.

The moderator, Mrs. Mary Klimuszko, served as an advisor to Karen Parrish, Pres., Debbie Boden, Vice-Pres., Veronica Everhardt, Sec., and Tina Menard, Treas.

Veronica Eberhardt, Tina Menard, Karen Parrish, and Debbie Boden try to understand a wind direction diagram.

Girls Represent CHS on Teen Board

Sally Geiger, Evelyn Butts, Angela Corns, Cam Hinton, and Tammy Malone model their uniforms.

Gayfer's Teen Board is a group of junior and senior girls who applied and were interviewed. They were selected on the basis of their academic achievements, involvement in school activities, participation in community projects and poise and appearance.

The Teen Board is a very active group. They are involved in service projects for the community and help to promote the Gayfer's stores in Pensacola. These projects keep them busy all year.

This year, Angela Corns is president; Cam Hinton, vice-president; Lisa Townsend, treasurer; and Kate Hopkins, public relations chairperson. Catholic High is well represented in this city-wide club.

As Tam Byrd shows, bulky sweaters are in.

Kate Hopkins and Sue Harris show their photogenic qualities.

Members promote fashion in the school, as can be seen by Lisa Townsend and MaryBeth Kissel.

Amy Sienicki displays the latest fashion in a slit skirt and pullover sweater.

Scuba Club Dives Into Things

The Scuba Club is moderated by Coach Bill Hemming. It was formed for those students who are interested in scuba diving. This year was a good year for the club because of all the members and their excitement for the sport. The club tries to go on a dive at least once a month.

Members of the club are Penny Bryant, Sherry Parrish, Mike Ludvigsen, David Miller, David Gallaway and Pat Ludvigsen.

Pat Ludvigsen gets ready for THE DIVE.

Seniors Are Simply Supreme

The Senior Class officers are Beth Brown, President; Kathy Moser, Vice-President; Molly Beovich, Treasurer; Catherine Currie, Secretary; and Mrs. Mary Anne Beovich, sponsor.

The Class of '80 has experienced many challenges during our four years at Catholic High. As freshmen, we rushed to classes, trying to find the right rooms, and ate lunch out in the field. We had a long summer and when we returned for our sophomore year, CHS had a new look. Middle hall was gone and new rooms were added. Since none of the rooms were numbered, we, once again, had to rush to classes, trying to find the right room. We no longer ate outside because the baseball team needed a field. But, despite the trying times, such as when we had to learn another new schedule, we began to feel that Catholic High was home.

Looking back, we can remember the seniors when we were freshmen. It's hard to believe that we are in their exact same places. Yes, we too, have walked the long and struggling path of education, and have successfully traveled it with dedication, determination, and pride. We have accomplished many goals. To name two: the great Crusader football team's winning record and the girls basketball team once again going to state.

As we anticipate the upcoming years and the new roads we will travel, we ate nervous and excited. We will bring with us the memories in our yearbooks, the memories of challenging classes and the memories of the rowdy pep rallies. But most of all, we will remember all of the strong friendships which gave our class that special characteristic of unity. We will always remember CHS and as we follow our yellow brick roads to our rainbows we will always strive to be true Crusaders.

The Senior Class would like to thank Mrs. Mary Anne Beovich for all her time, love and devotion. Thank you also CHS for the fond memories while we were growing up.

Juniors Shine

The class of '81 showed its spirit this year by winning three of the pep rallies, the field day trophy, and the "Deck the Halls" competition during Homecoming week. They also showed their mighty wealth as being one of the richest Junior classes ever. Juniors worked hard to put on the prom by having a tremendously successful magazine drive, selling pennants, sno-cones, and putting on the Valentine dance. The class of '81 showed that they are in great shape for things to come.

Officers: Secretary Gretchen Sporl, Treasurer Terri Remich, President Karen Davis, Vice-President Joe Furry, and moderator Sister Carol Harbeck lead the junior class on the road to success.

Sophomores Spread Their Spirit

The class of 1982 has grown a great deal since their freshman year. The sophomore officers, President David Scarritt, Vice-President Marti Wynn, Secretary Sandi Toomer, and Treasurer Gwen Terry, led the class to develop a greater sense of school spirit and Crusader pride with the help of their class moderator, Mrs. Alina Atwell. Move Aside — Here Come the Freshmen

It didn't take the 1979-80 Freshmen Class long to feel at ease roaming the halls at Catholic High. Under the leadership of Mrs. Anne Johnson, moderator; Brad Lowell, president; Paul Hilbert, vice-president; Kay Belich, secretary; and Allison Dillon, treasurer; the class became familiar with the activities going on in the school. The Freshmen caught on fast and won the homecoming pep rally, and were active and successful in many of the extra-curricular activities offered. All of them are looking forward to the next three years, so move aside — the freshmen are coming!

Administrators Set, Uphold High Standards at CHS

Father Robert Morris holds two important positions — president and chaplain.

Mr. Joseph Chodkiewicz found out what CHS spirit is all about during his first year as principal.

Because of his desire to better Catholic High, on January first Father Guy Morin was promoted to Vice-President.

After her many years of teaching at CHS, Sister Mary Jeanne Mulherin received the newly formed position of Administrative Assistant.

Mr. Ernest Herring, Vice-President, shows dedication to CHS.

Guidance Counsels Students Toward Their Future

As a counselor, Mr. Jack Moser assists students in achieving their goals and ambitions.

Mrs. Ellen Balthrop is always open to anyone who needs help in the area of careers.

As a dedicated counselor, Sr. Teresa Condon, shows sympathy and kindness to all students.

Mrs. Mary Klimusko's counseling keeps the students on track toward a bright future.

Mrs. Marjorie Higgins, Guidance Secretary, gives her services to all.

Office Staff Has Recipe for Efficiency

Mrs. Catherine Humphreys, receptionist, always has a bright smile to cheer everyone's day.

Mrs. Marlene Ainsley has the almost impossible task of keeping track of Mr. C's hectic schedule.

Miss Rose Rauscher, bookkeeper, makes sure that everyone keeps tuition paid up and that the teachers get their pay checks.

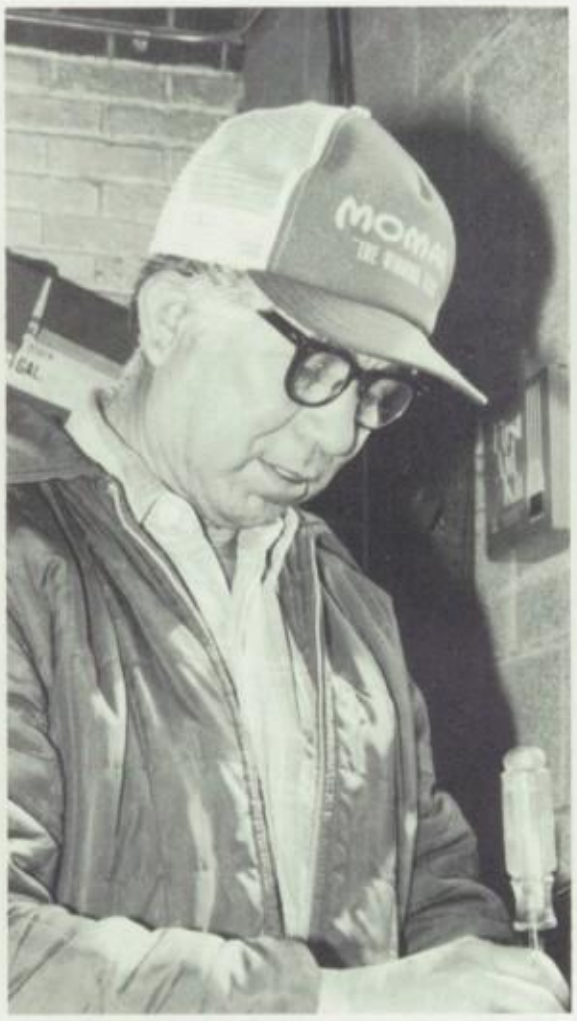
Mrs. Luverne Bailey keeps the records of how much money each club or sport has.

Don't Overlook These Important People

Mrs. Kay Mackenzie stores a wealth of knowledge in her . . . library.

Mrs. Patti Nanni enjoys her new job this year as bookstore manager.

Doing a project and need to find a book? This is the well-informed man to see — Mr. Richard Potter, the school librarian.



Mr. Lopez Herrera, maintenance man, keeps the school in running order and can fix anything and everything.

Mrs. Alice Blackwell, cafeteria manager, is in charge of almost everyone's favorite class — lunch.

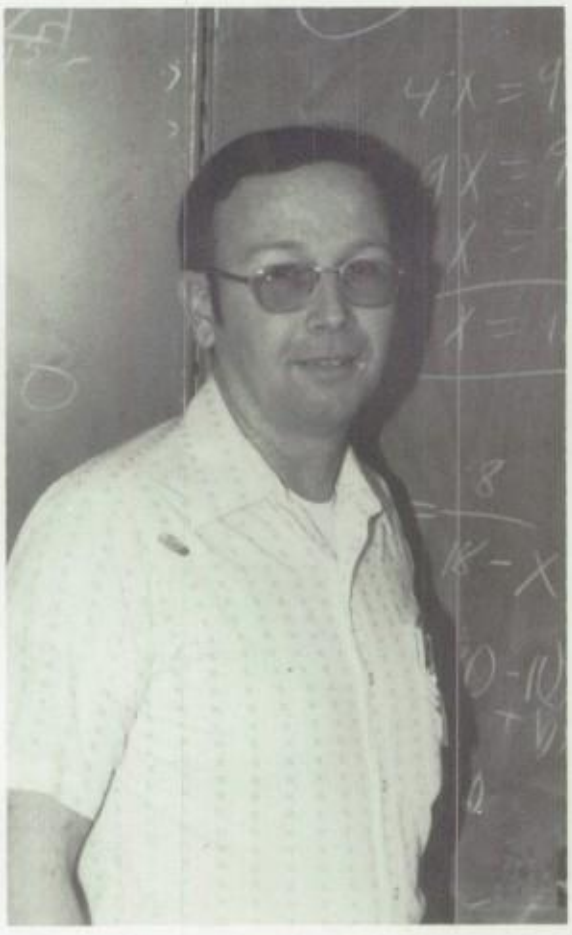
Mr. James Alfred has been teaching at CHS for 21 years. He is chairman of the social studies department and was an alternate delegate to the Republican convention in 1976.

Mrs. Alina Atwell, a native of Cuba, has been in the U.S. for seven years. She teaches both Spanish I and II.

Mrs. Mary Anne Beovich, moderator of the Senior Class, has been at CHS four years. She teaches calculus, Math IV, Algebra II and trigonometry.

Mr. Hector Bosse teaches religion to seniors and does part-time work in the French department. This is his first year at CHS.

Mr. Michael Browne, who has a master's degree in chemical engineering, teaches geometry and physics. He also coaches the freshman basketball team.



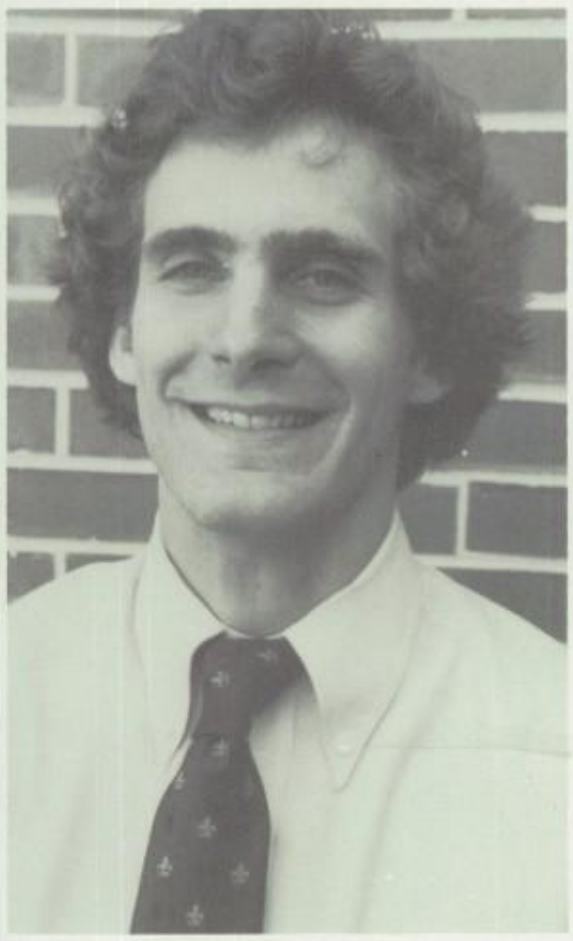
Miss Deborah Casler teaches Spanish I and English 10. She enjoys needlework, reading and traveling.

Ms. Kathy Chadwick is chairman of the religion department and teaches religion to juniors. Her interests include crafts, reading and yoga.

Mrs. Peggy Doherty, who has been at CHS for five years, teaches English to juniors and seniors. In her leisure time she likes to read or watch old movies.

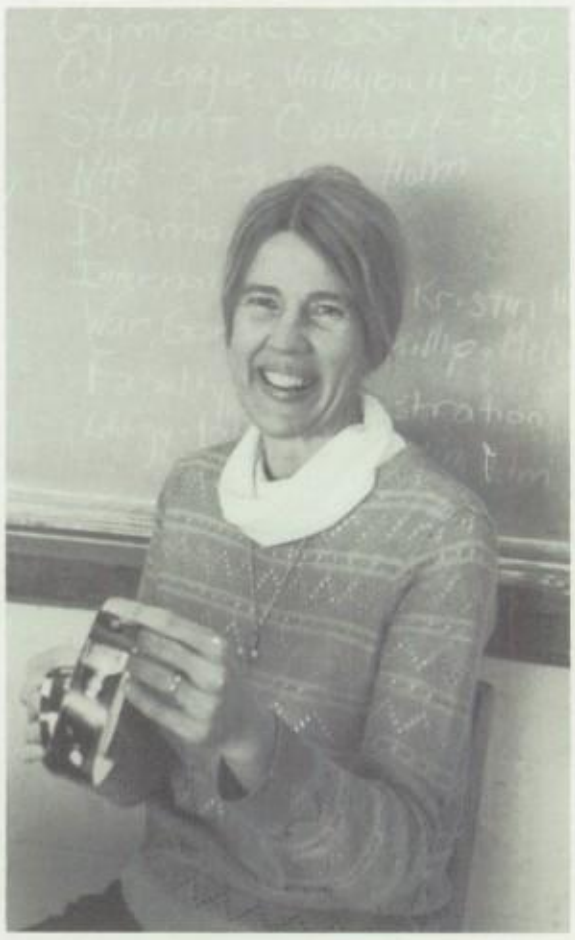
Mr. Bob Elzy, a newcomer to CHS, is enjoying his first year of teaching math here. He will be head football coach next season.

Mr. Steve Emmanuel, a graduate of CHS in 1975, teaches American history, moderates the tennis team, and manages the business staff of the yearbook.



Mr. Dick Erwin, director of the entire athletic program, teaches Honors POD and business math.

Sister Margaret Frederick, OSB, teaches English 12, humanities, and journalism. She also moderates both the newspaper staff and the yearbook staff.



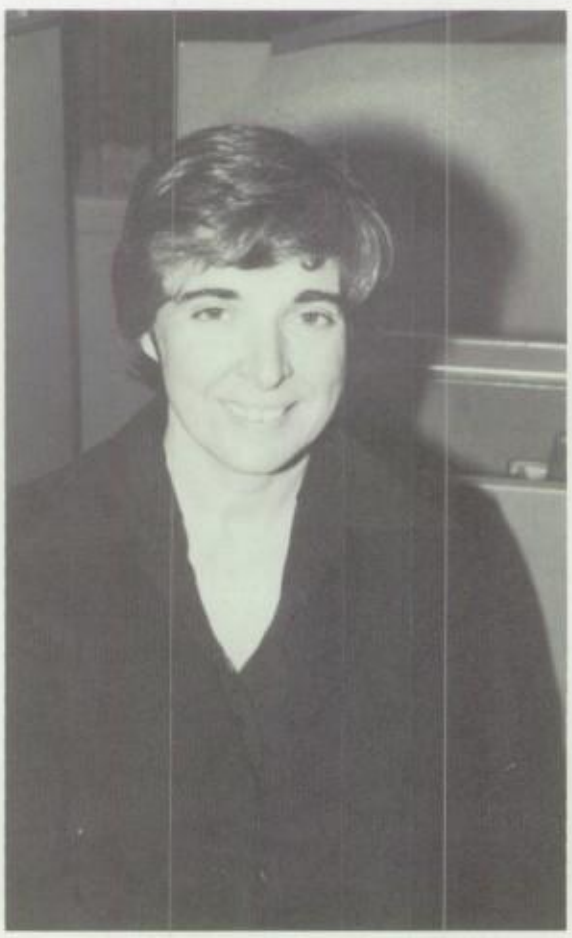
Mr. George Gedney teaches pre-algebra and Algebra I. His hobbies include sailing and playing golf.

Miss Lori Anne Green, moderator of the Anchor club, teaches Title I English. Her hobbies are jogging and ballet.

Miss Carolyn Jeanne Hall, a 1975 graduate of CHS, teaches Spanish I and English 10 CP.

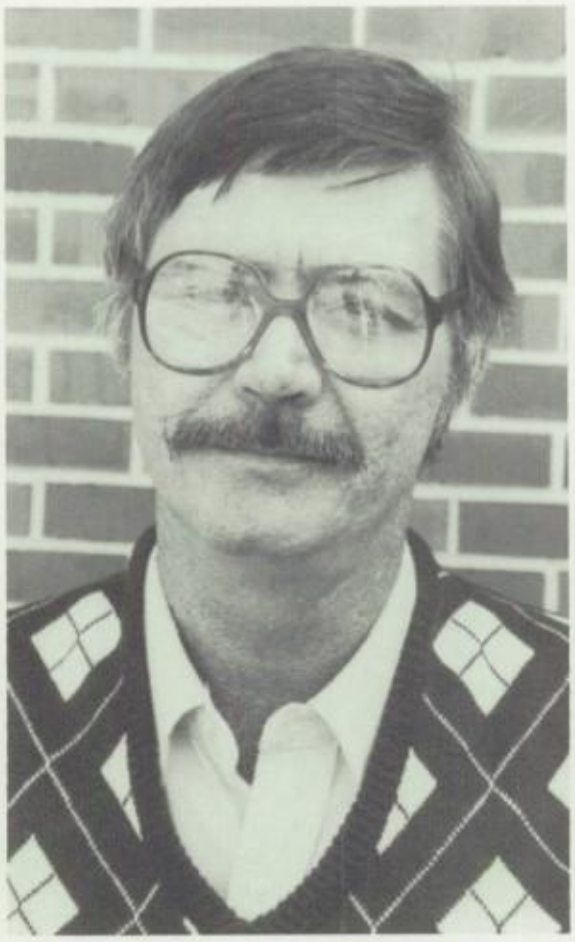
Sister Carol Harbeck, RSM, head of the math department, teaches Geometry and Algebra I. She has a master's degree in mathematics and in education.

Sister Rose Healy, OSF, moderator of the tutoring program at St. Joseph, teaches 10th grade religion.



Mr. William Hemming, head coach of the cross country team and moderator of the scuba club, teaches science.

Ms. Virginia Holland, coach of the girls Varsity Basketball team, teaches PE, and moderates the Student Council and the cheerleaders.



Mr. Conrad Jaburg teaches English and Mass Communications. In his spare time he enjoys fishing, traveling, and reading.

Sr. John Michael Jacobson OSF, not only teaches English 9, but also works part-time at the Chancery as assistant director of the ministry to youth.

Mrs. Ann Johnson, moderator of the freshman class, teaches Religion on all grade levels.

Mrs. Linda Knowles teaches Title I Math, and enjoys macrame, swimming, reading, and football.

Mr. James Lucas, who helped coach the football team and the girls softball team, teaches math.

Ms. Sonia MacKenzie, moderator of the Drama Club, teaches English to accelerated sophomores and seniors. Reading, swimming and "beaching" rate high with her.

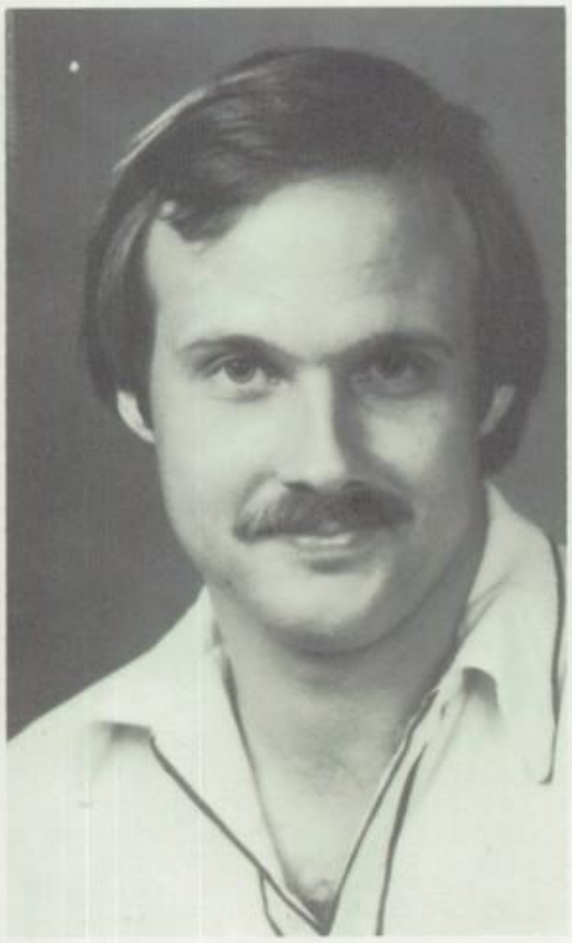
Mrs. Annette Massicotte is chairman of the English department and teaches speech and English. She is also moderator of the Forensics Club.

Mrs. Martha McClellan, a graduate of Mary Knoll College, teaches religion to freshmen. She is an avid gardener in her spare time.

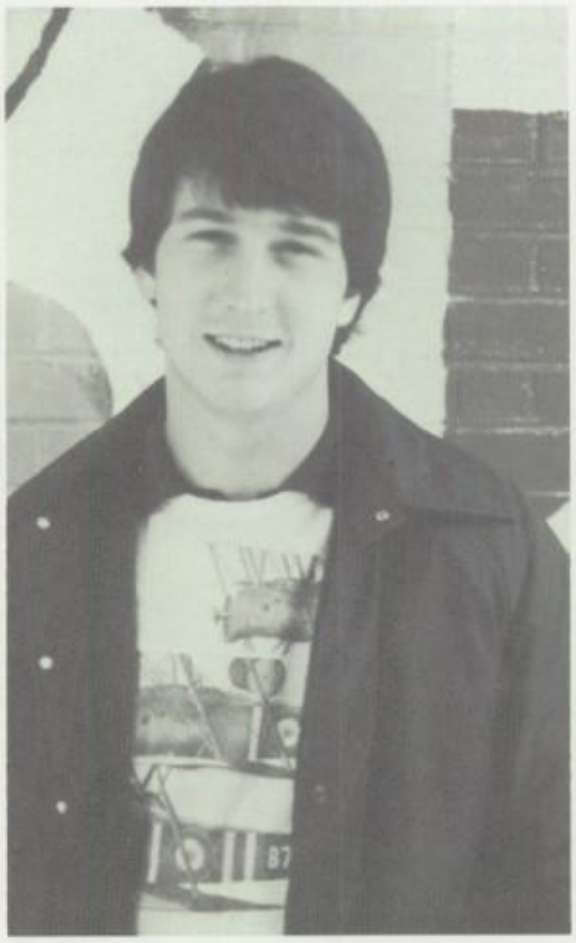
Mr. Toni Miklovich teaches art, including courses in pottery, sculpture and crafts. She enjoys traveling and designing and sewing clothes.

Father Guy Morin, vice-president of CHS, is chairman of the science department and teaches chemistry. He is also Photography Club moderator.

Sister Mary Jeanne Mulherin, RSM, has been at CHS for 22 years. She teaches business law, moderates the NHS, and is an administrative assistant.



Mr. Tim O'Neil, who is in his first year at Catholic High, coaches the Varsity Boys' Basketball Team and teaches P.E.

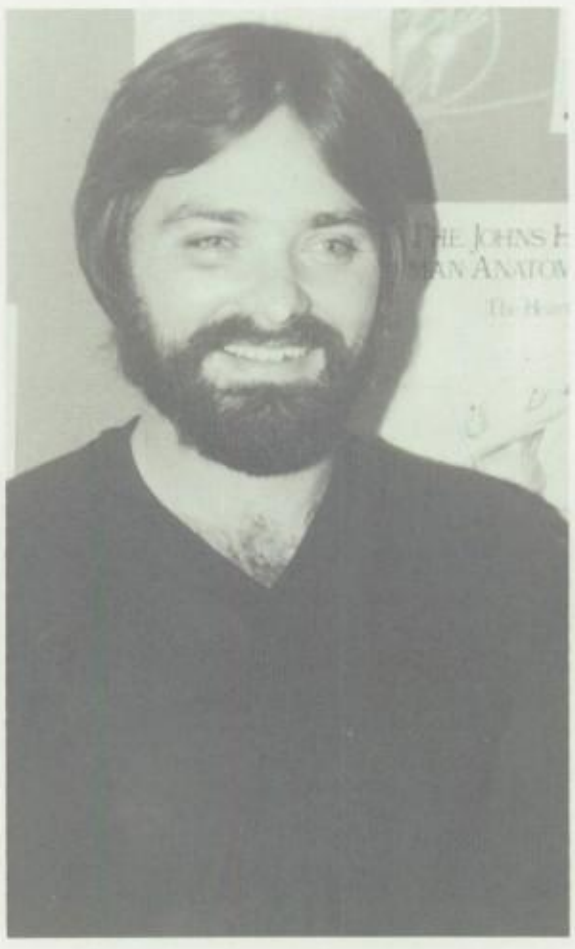


Mr. Phil Payne coaches the sprint runners on the track team. He also teaches P.E. classes. His hobbies include running and sailing.

Mrs. Anne Schimmel teaches three levels of French and two Latin classes. She moderates the International Club. She enjoys music, golf and loves to travel.

Mrs. Janet Sharpe received her Master's from Portland State. She teaches P.E. and coaches the Tumbling Team. She enjoys tennis, arts and crafts.

Mr. Greg Spikes' first priority is teaching biology. But, he enjoys athletics and coaches the baseball and football teams.



Mrs. Elaine Steele was appointed head of the business department this year. She teaches Typing I, Typing II, and Bookkeeping.

Mrs. Catherine Templeton teaches Home Economics, Foods and Housing, and English 10. She received her B.S. Degree from the University of Southwestern Louisiana.

Mrs. Carol Warner teaches Religion 10, 11, 12. In her spare time she enjoys cooking, gardening, camping and fishing.

Mr. Williams teaches math here at CHS. He also moderates the Math Club, Cultural Awareness Club, and the International Club.

CHS teachers really get involved at the Pep Rallies!

Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Warner show off their bundles of joy.

Liturgy Serves Spiritual Needs

Lynn Gerber, Robin Couresen, Mike Smith, and Robbin Watts practice a song as Terri Remich and Steve Johansen accompany them on their guitars.

Senior Charles Boyd serves as an altar boy during the Christmas mass.

Doug Harrington and Kim Arthur put their feelings about the liturgy on a banner that was sponsored by the Journalism class. The banner won first place in the contest.

Lisa Ferraro, Robin Coursen, and other dancers inspired everyone.

This year brought many changes in the religious atmosphere at Catholic High. Faculty members such as Mrs. Kay MacKenzie, Father Guy Moran, and Mr. Jack Moser worked with interested students to make the masses more inspiring. Despite the problem of having 800 people crowded into the gym, the group of students and teachers thought of ways to make the liturgy come alive. They came up with dances and reenactments of the gospel that aided in the worship of the Eucharist.

These seniors are making a poster for the All Saint's Day mass.

Tina Gellner receives communion from the bishop at the Christmas mass.

Nancy Smith and Dawn Gilbert are just two of the many singers who worked hard practicing their singing to help add atmosphere to the mass.

This is just one example of the artistic banners that was made.

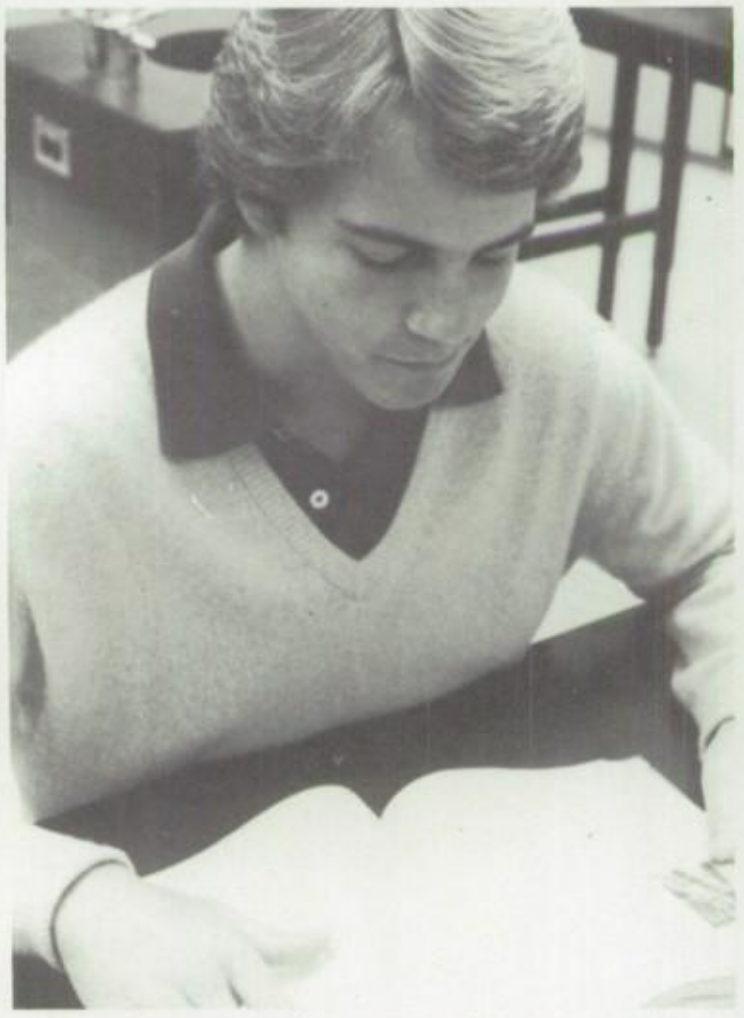
They're Delicious,

Have Allen Kramer and Kitt Lough got something going, or is it cold?

David Fritz is a wild and crazy guy!

All for one and one for all, we stick together!

But Allen Lambert, Catholic High isn't two story.



Is Wells Lane a bookworm, or is that a super book?

Delightful and Delectable

Tim Price and David Miller battle it out.

"Look Mom, no cavities!" says Rose Ann Hunter.

Is Patricia Putnam a vacuum cleaner salesman?

Is studious Susan Sámaras asleep in class?

Andy Girone keeps two hands on the steering wheel and two eyes on the road.

David Fritz studies with his critters.

The Junior class watches attentively.

What are you thinking about, Jeff Rabold?

Peter Matuska expresses his point of view

David Herring does his chores.

Do Cherie Skinner and Kim Ramser always dress this way?

Eileen Watson loves her mouse, and her mouse loves her.

Sophomores cheer their class on.

Mrs. McClellan sees something she likes.

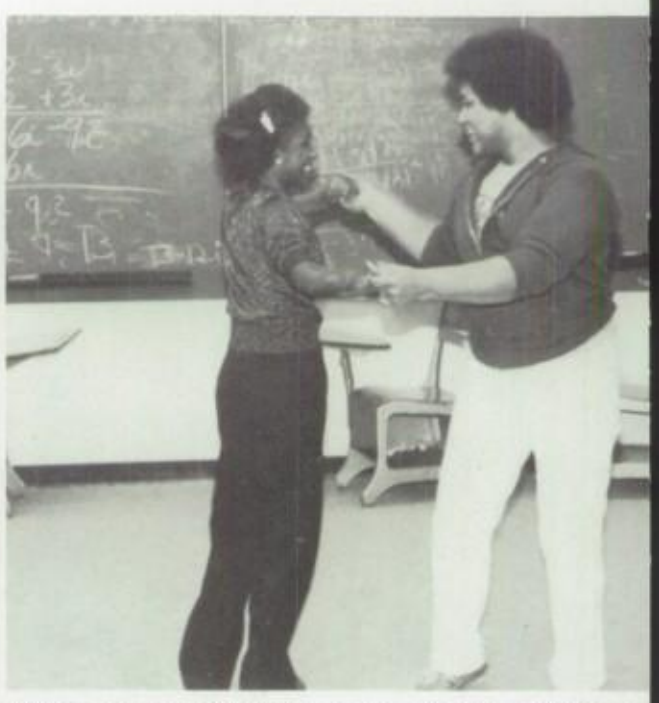
"Won't Ashley be surprised! says Kathy Moser and Alfred Jackson.

Smile, Joan Coger; you're on Candid Camera!

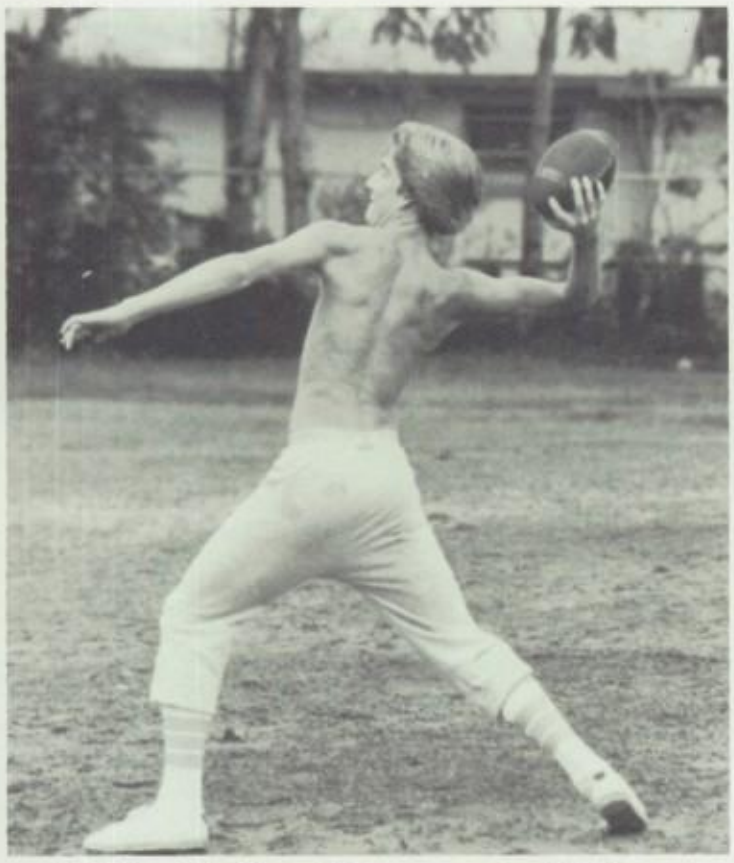
"Hip, Hip, Hooray!" says Jennifer Scafidi.

Nice frames you've got there, Robin Drasutis.

Meg Hawthorne is free at last.



Watch out, Soul Train. Here comes Marion Williams and Donald Outing.



Watch out, Joe Namath; here comes Rex McKinney.

"Well, I aced that test," says Debbie Ciano.

"I DARE you," says Seane Walker.

It couldn't be that difficult, The Bui.

Have these girls been drafted?

"It's true," says Melanie Hinton. "Peanut butter does stick to the roof of your mouth."

Is that rhinoceros whispering sweet nothings in Duke Osborne's ear?

Of course, Genia Sherwood uses "Gleem" toothpaste.

Happiness is being friends, Cindy Campbell, Melissa Flores.

"I never knew John Oliver was that tall," says Kay Turner.

Linda Payne, are self-portraits really that hard?

You may begin when I say ready.

Sorry, Steve Henning; three strikes you're out!

"Dinner is served," says Clarence Moyer.

Pottery is not a laughing matter, Jean Duncan.

"I have an Excedrin headache," says Sam Parsons.

Mr. Chodkiewicz ranks at the top of the best-dressed list.

If Mr. Ramirez can't fix it, it can't be fixed.

Kelly Shumpert and Fred Karkowski agree that Dan Tully's looks are improved when he's upside down.

Who's labeled Joe Scarborough and Sister Margaret so mistakenly?

Sister Elizabeth Doyle and Mayor Vince Whibbs are honored guests at a special assembly.

Sister Rose Healy helps with tutoring at St. Joseph's Community Center.

Are Temple Martin and Jeanne Brockman hiding behind that cotton candy?

Don't you dare, Robin Drasutis.

Mrs. Marge Higgins and Sister Teresa take a coffee break.

The talented Greg Geri sings his latest song.

Patty Scholls usually has a smile on her face.

Spring Rally Blooms With Fun, Games and Goodies

The second annual Spring Rally drew eighth-graders from around the city to the CHS campus on Ascension Thursday. There the prospective freshmen joined with students and faculty of the school for a day of merriment. Not only was it a good chance for newcomers to acquaint themselves with the school, it gave clubs and organizations an opportunity to increase their treasuries through the various booths they sponsored.

Lisa Ferraro gets an assist from senior musclemen in the popular mattress race.

Marci Fernandez shines in the student-faculty volleyball contest.

Al Hanson keeps an eye on all that's going on.

Apparently Mike Platta forgot to shave this morning.

Marie Gormley and Jenny Braden compete as Mrs. Atwell judges.

The Sailing Club hopes to find buried treasure — money, that is.

Sadie Hawkins Dance Brews Gallons of Merriment

Scott Smith, reigning Dogpatch Beauty, is swept off "her" feet by brawny Perry Hunter.

Straw-hatters Mary Kissel and Dian Gehrdes are tickled that the dance seems financially and socially successful.

Greg Bierman and Suzanne Hartley take a breather from the dance floor.

Two cuties, Scott Smith and Scott Bailey, dazzle spectators at the dance with their many charms.

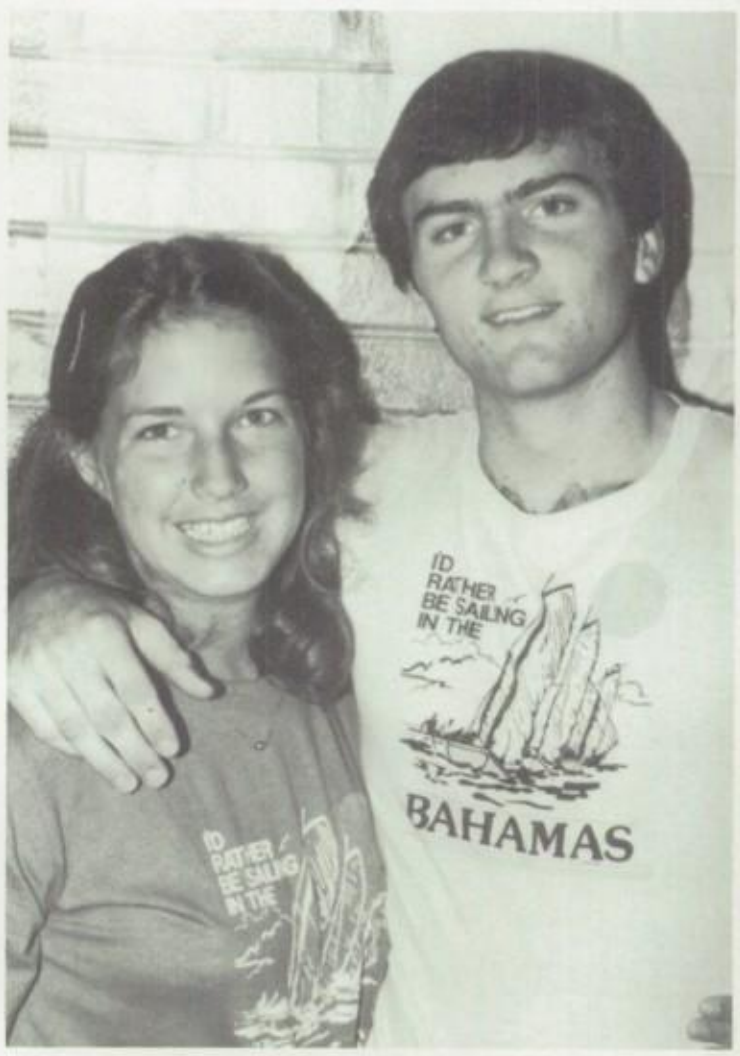
Robbin Watts, official Dog Patch catcher, gets friendly with Preacher Brian Hartig.

Seniors Rock the Boat on Bahamas Cruise

The Bahamas adventure began when 101 seniors piled aboard three Greyhound busses for a 14-hour drive to Miami. On board the "Flavia," they learned to live with their small quarters and their Italian waiters. They learned the theory of probability as they pulled the arms of the slot machines. Morning found them in the emerald waters of Nassau. They bartered in the market, searched for shells, sunned at Paradise island, and enjoyed the lush scenery. The sail home brought them face-to-face with customs, but all cleared. Happy but exhausted, they slept all the way home. It was an unforgettable experience.

The chaperones find some delightfully relaxing moments at mealtimes.

Beth Brown catches some shut-eye on the bus to Miami.



Julie Bonifay and Charlie Sherrill are not the only ones who'd rather be sailing in the Bahamas.

Kimli Hanks and Cindy Varner love the leisurely pace aboard the "Flavia."

Rick Falzone and Billy Warren check out the local attractions.

Ken Cascone basks in the rays of that gorgeous tropical sun.

Scott Lewis, Julie Bonifay, Perry Hunter and Molly Beovich hate to leave the islands.

Patrice Scarrit is wide awake as John Herring snoozes on the way home.

Talent Show Displays Skill, Creativity

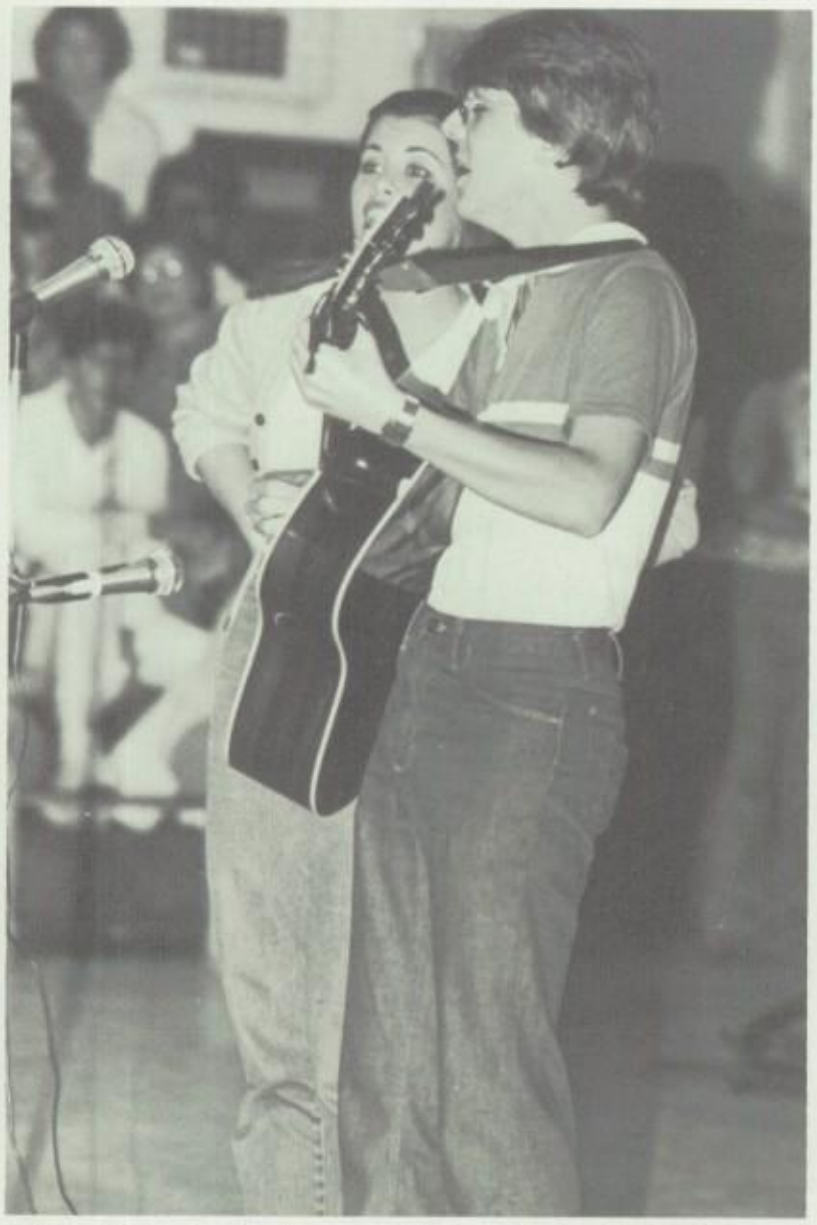
The winner of the Talent Show for the second year in a row is Tony Antoine.

Cindi Varner gives Roseann Hunter a push to send her into the air.

Steve Johansen and Karen Remich perform a song for the audience.



Seniors Steve McPadden and Kitt Lough give their version of "Teach Your Children Well."

Sheryl Walker and her dog Mandy add a new twist to the show.

Linda Kurpuis sings "Time in a Bottle."

Mike Hart and Mike Nelson entertain their fans with their fine guitar playing.

Miss Holland is small on size, big on caring.

Jennifer Scafidi likes that barbecue!

Taking spanish from Mrs. Atwell is a real treat.

Fran Green ponders the next step of her art project.

Steve Land has learned the value of thorough research.

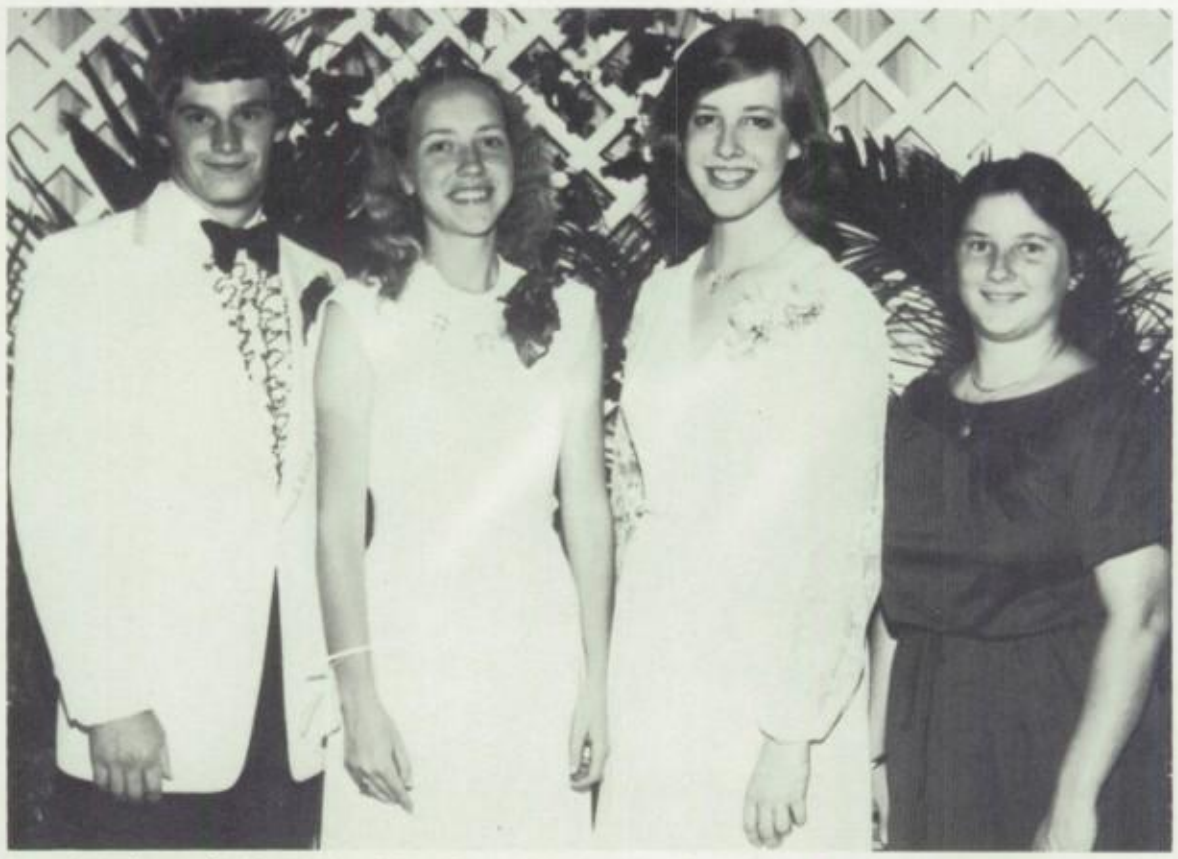
Because of Buzz Griffin, much music has been heard throughout CHS this year.

'A Little Southern Romance' Sets Prom Theme

Martha Hodgkins and Joe Young top off their Junior year at prom.

Ann Taylor and George Biggs dance outdoors.

The 1980 Junior-Senior Prom was held May 11 at the Garden Center. The band "Devastation" played from 9 PM to 1 AM. The Juniors worked all year to earn money to support the theme, "A Little Southern Romance." Spring-colored streamers, greenery, and a gazebo emphasized the theme, along with the dance cards used by all the girls. Special gifts of Japanese fans were given to all Senior girls.



David Bickerstaff, Mary Ann Humphreys, Nancy Smith, and Janet Matroni are ready to enjoy what they worked on for so long.

Teresa Kozik looks for a "little Southern romance."

Commencement Exercises Mark End of Beginning

Mr. Chodkiewicz begins the program with a welcome to the seniors and their guests.

Yvonne Wong takes her final steps as a senior.

Serious reflection marks the faces of Clarence Moyer and Mimi Moncier.

Debbie Hansen pays tribute to the graduates with an original poem.

Steve McPadden leads the class in "Teach Your Children Well."

"Sweet Surrender" sings Kit Lough as a last song for her classmates.

Karen Remich makes "a joyful noise" as she accompanies the seniors in their class song.

Allison Todd and Mary Mayne delight the audience with a graceful pas de deux.

Salutatorian Don Topp shares his pride in his education and his experiences at CHS.

Pete Green, along with 178 other graduates, is happy to get that diploma.

As valedictorian, Tracy Askew lights up the PHS auditorium with exuberance and gratitude.

Seniors Feast on Honors and Memories at Awards Banquet

The 1980 Senior Academic Banquet was held at Scenic Hills Country Club. Fifty awards were given, and a record amount of $268,400 was awarded in scholarships.

Tim Thorsen is honored for his perfect attendance over twelve years.

Mr. Herring welcomes the recipients and their families.

Beth Brown shares bits of reminiscence with the seniors.

Senior award winners make an impressive group as they line up before admiring families and friends.

Kathy Moser presents Jim Burns an award for excellence in journalism.

In Memoriam . . . Coach Bob Fulton, 1933-1980

This is the creed that Coach Fulton lived by:

While you have ceased to play the game of football . . . you will soon begin to take part in an even bigger and more important game . . . the Game of Life!

I would like to pass on to you the advice a Chaplain gave his son upon graduation. "I am giving you the ball, son, and naming you the quarterback for your team in the Game of Life. I am your coach . . . so I'll give it to you straight. There is only one schedule to play . . . it lasts all of your life, but consists of only one game.

"It is a long game . . . with no time out and no substitutions. You . . . each of you . . . play the whole game . . . all your life. You'll have a great backfield. You're calling the signals but the other three fellows in the backfield with you have great reputations. They are named FAITH . . . HOPE . . . and CHARITY.

"You'll work behind a truly powerful line. End to end . . . it consists of Honesty . . . Loyalty . . . Devotion to Duty . . . Self Respect . . . Study . . . Cleanliness . . . and Good Behavior.

"The goal posts are the Pearly Gates of Heaven. God is the referee and sole official. He makes all the rules and there is no appeal from them.

"There are ten rules. You know them as the Ten Commandments . . . and you play them strictly in accordance with your own religion.

"There is also an important ground rule. It is . . . 'As ye would that men should do to you . . . do ye also to them likewise.'

"The Ball? . . . IT is your immortal soul. Hold on to it. Now, son, get in there and let's see what you can do with it!"

Coach Fulton was a disciplinarian. He always demanded respect from his players and always got it. He'd lay down strict rules and always stuck by them. In the first two games of this year, CHS was plagued with unsportsmanlike conduct penalties. After the Gulf Breeze game, he told the team that if anyone got called for unsportsmanlike conduct, he'd be benched for two games. There were no more after that.

There was more to Fulton than being a strict disciplinarian. I was always surprised about the relaxed aura about him. He'd joke around and had a great sense of humor. I just wish more people could have seen the other side of him.

Joe Scarborough

Coach Fulton and his beautiful wife Mary Ann came to us in the Spring of 1978 and left us in the Winter of 1980. In the four seasons they gave to us, they taught us the game of life. They lived that game and in death wanted the game of life instilled in us all.

Coach Dick Erwin

Mr. Chodkiewicz gets into the spirit of jeans day.

Nancy Hamel loves being a senior at Catholic High.

Whatever would Lynn Gerber do without the telephone?

I'd like to thank my ever-dedicated staff — Vicki, Paul, Mary, Melanie, Kelly, Kristin, Bernadita, Philip, and even Henry. I'm sure they are as proud of this book as I am.

We'd like to thank all the people who are not on the staff but helped make this yearbook a success. First, all the journalism students who wrote copy and captions. Thanks to everyone who donated pictures, especially Rick Garner, Lewis Waldeisen, and Jeff Kraselsky (you're real life-savers). Paul McCain, thanks for doing a terrific job on an almost impossible task — taking all the pictures for this book. We are greatly indebted to Joe Walters for the cover design and Robbin Watts for drawing the ad pages. We are grateful to Miss Holland for supporting us just as she does all of Catholic High. We. gladly accepted the $100 she and her cheerleaders gave us. Mr. Emmanuel, Anglea Corns, and the rest of the business staff worked hard raising the necessary money to make a quality yearbook.

I owe Vicki Nanni an extra special thanks for helping me keep my sanity through the hassle of getting this all together. To the mighty Class of '80, thank you for all your support — you gave me a reason to do this.

And last, Sister Margaret, this yearbook would not have been possible without you. You were the only one who had the courage to take over the staff when no one else would. For that, the rest of the staff and I are eternally grateful.
